TWO SLAIN AT A RACIAL HOUSE

1928 BOOM FOR BORAH SENSED IN DRYS' APPLAUSE

Baltimore Speech Starts Rumors.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

(Chicago Tribune Staff Service.)
Washington, D. C., June 1.—[Special.]—Senator William E. Borah (Rep., Idaho) is the candidate of the new drys for the Republican nomination for President in 1928.

The capital buzzed with speculation on this question today following the enthusiastic reception accorded the senator's Baltimore speech by the leaders of the Anti-Saloon League, W. C. T. U. and other prohibition organizations.

The rumor with which the drys said Borah as a prospective leader of their fight against modifications of the prohibition law in the elections this year and in 1928 was viewed as particularly significant by Republican leaders, who think they have sensed a rift between the Anti-Saloon League and the White House.

Break with White House?
It appears, according to these observers, that the Anti-Saloon League actually broke with the Coolidge administration over the testimony of Senator Lincoln C. Andrews, chief engineer, at the senate prohibition hearing. He declared that permission to suppress beer and wine of higher alcohol content than one half of one percent, but nonintoxicating in fact, would make enforcement of the law too difficult.

The league leaders have not been seen at the White House nor the treasury department since that time. The league denounced Andrews for his testimony and set out to get his scalp, but with a cool reception at the White House, the President making it clear that he was not disposed to discipline the general for an expression of opinion.

New politicians are wondering whether the booming of Borah for President means that the league is through with Coolidge and is preparing to oppose his re-nomination.

What Borah Said.
Senator Borah's Baltimore remarks which occasioned the enthusiasm among the drys were delivered at a meeting held under the auspices of the Prohibition general assembly.

"I believe the liquor traffic to be a curse to the human family," he said. "Whether sold in the open saloon or the hotel, its natural haunt, or secretly purveyed in defiance of law, the worst stuff works its demoralization and ruin to individuals, communities, and nations."

"From the time it issues from the distillery and copper-colored worm in the factory until it enters the hell of crime, dishonor and death, misery and poverty and remorse marks its reckless course. Not only is the record of the centuries made up against it, but now the modern industrial world with its complex and delicate machinery, with its demand for security, safety and fitness, asks that it be banished."

Wants Chastity Sobor.
"The man in the automobile may be supposed to be the eighteenth amendment, but he is instantly discharged as a drinker," he said. "Where the delegates to the anti-liquor convention, but they would be engineers who would take the place of the industrial magnate may be supposed to be the eighteenth amendment, but they would be engineers who would take the place of the industrial magnate may be supposed to be the eighteenth amendment, but they would be engineers who would take the place of the industrial magnate."

Great Question at Stake.
The great question is the capacity of the American people for constitutional government. The question of the hour is whether we live up to and enforce the constitution or whether we deliberately make it a mockery."

Lloyd George-Oxford Row Splits Liberals

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Staff Service.)
[Copyright, 1926, By The Chicago Tribune.]
LONDON, June 1.—The Lord Oxford-David Lloyd George controversy was carried a stage further tonight by the publication of Lord Oxford's rejoinder to Mr. Lloyd George's last letter of explanation of why he dissociated himself from the Liberal shadow cabinet during the general strike.

"Mr. Lloyd George was not driven out, he refused to come in," Lord Oxford states, indicating the breach between the two leaders now is final and unequivocal.

Lord Oxford's rejoinder is in the form of a communication to Sir Godfrey Collins, chief Liberal whip. In it he justifies his original intimation to Mr. Lloyd George that the latter's refusal to attend the shadow cabinet was equivalent to his resignation.

No Excommunication Attempted.
"Mr. Lloyd George, in the exercise of his own judgment, chose to separate himself in the most formal manner from our deliberations at a moment of emergency, and there is no such question here as excommunication or ostracism—there is no such process known in the Liberal party."

Twelve of his colleagues in the shadow cabinet, headed by Lord Grey, have written a letter to Lord Grey, also published tonight, supporting his attitude and accusing Mr. Lloyd George of "opportunism," "instability," and "expressing their suspicion that he is hankering after a new coalition."

evolving directly from prohibition the record would be amazingly clean in comparison with a decade ago, the police commanders declared.

In other days, they showed the jurors, the murderers quaked before the desire to punish as manifested by the victim's survivors. There was a clear divided distinction between murderers and the murdered. Now, the police captains asserted, the distinction has melted away, and the murdered probably previously have been murderers and outlaws. Hence their allies must keep the silence code or be themselves put away as informers and stool pigeons.

Police Morale High.

"The morale of the police department is higher than in many years past," said one police captain of thirty years' service. "Never before have we had better cooperation from the state's attorney's office."

"But we are always met by the impenetrable wall of silence. Sometimes we are absolutely certain of the identity of the new brand of criminals in a particular crime. But there is no proof acceptable in a court of law, and what can we do? Only keep on striving, hoping and determine that the pendulum shall swing back again on the side of law and order."

Can't Break Into Silence.

All the captains agreed that it was impossible to get gangsters to tell anything at all about gang operations and killings, even against their rivals. They never talk, the captains said, and several jurors nodded assent, for they have had dozens of gangsters in the witness stand before them, and not one would tell them of the booze traffic and its cost in life and community disorder.

Capt. James Gleason of the Fillmore street station, once chief of police of Chicago, was one of the most emphatic in citing the two evils that halt justice.

"Why, I remember a case," he said when asked about the difficulty of getting evidence against gangsters, "in which a hoodlum shot three men. I questioned the three wounded victims first, and none of them would tell who shot them. They sulked and simply refused to discuss it."

"Then we picked up the man who did the shooting, and he confessed and told us all about it. When we confronted the victims with his own statement, they finally and reluctantly admitted it was true."

"When the case came to trial, all three victims refused to testify against the gangsters, and, of course, the case failed."

The O'Donnell brothers, Klondike and Myles, who had told of being with McGuegan, Doherty, and Duffy just before they were killed, but denied being present, as the police believe they were, were again summoned before the grand jury.

Crowe Offers Immunity.

State's Attorney Crowe, eager to gain evidence which would solve the McGuegan murder, offered both gangsters immunity from prosecution under two indictments pending against them on charges of bootlegging and gambling. He would pay them the $5,000 reward if they offered if they would furnish information leading to the arrest and conviction of the murderers, Mr. Crowe said.

But the O'Donnells stuck to their guns.

VAST CHOIRS FOR EUCHARISTIC MASS OPEN REHEARSALS

To the measured swing of the arms of Otto A. Singenberger, director of music for the Eucharistic congress, two vast choirs that will be heard during the event, yesterday held their first rehearsals at the Coliseum.

In the afternoon, both the main floor and the balcony were crowded with more than 7,500 boys and girls from Catholic high schools, to receive from Singenberger their initial instruction in the mass of St. Francis.

Last evening more than 3,000 women filled the seats on the main floor and in the balcony for the first time in the melodious Rosa Mystica mass, by Villa Carmelli, which they are to sing in company with a chorus of some 5,000 nuns from all over the country.

HOWARD VICTOR IN ELECTION OF PRINTER UNION

Indians, this time James M. Lynch, president of the International Typographical union and a prominent labor leader for more than 25 years, received the first political setback of his career today when returns on the union's election indicated his defeat by Charles P. Howard of Chicago.

Lynch was running 2,200 votes behind Howard in returns from 215 local unions, with about one-fifth of the vote to be heard from. Additional returns are not expected to change the result materially. The election was held in local unions last Wednesday and results were mailed to headquarters.

$814,125 PAVING RUSHED IN COUNTY ROAD EMERGENCY

Board Seeks City Aid for Super-Highway System.

Emergency measures were taken yesterday by the county board to relieve congested traffic conditions on county highways. Contracts to construct new concrete roads costing $814,125 were awarded, and work will be begun at once.

Moreover, the board announced its willingness to cooperate with city authorities in immediate widening of all main artery roads to a minimum of 40 feet. A resolution was presented by President Anton J. Cernak which called for action on a widening plan. Predictions were made that Cook county may have a superhighway system well under construction within a year.

North, South, and West Projects.

Four of the new stretches of concrete highways are in the southern part of the county and two are in the northern district. But the west side was not forgotten. The highway department was ordered to prepare plans and get estimates of the cost of building a road west on Harrison street from Des Plaines avenue to the Mannheim road, including a bridge over the Des Plaines river, and the extension of Chicago avenue from Thatcher avenue to the Mannheim road, including another bridge over the river.

The contract awards approved by the board were:

Route, street, location.	Amount.
84—Holtzway, 111th to 134th st.	$192,112
94—Lincoln, Elk Grove rd. to 106th st.	166,206
48-71—Walters, Northfield twp.	41,208
62—134th, Palms, twp.	135,292
59—134th, Thornton twp.	73,045
39-39A—Michigan City rd., Thornton twp.	91,190
89—Burnham, Thornton twp.	86,300

Most of the new roads will serve as feeders to the main highways, thus relieving jammed conditions on certain stretches. Such relief is only temporary and the widening plan is the only real solution to the traffic problem on country roads, Mr. Cernak said.

Calls for Speedy Action.

The Cernak resolution called for conferences with the Chicago Regional Planning association, the Illinois division of highways, the county highway departments of Lake, Du Page, and Will counties, and the Chicago board of local improvements, to be held at once.

"Quick action is needed to deal with the traffic situation," Mr. Cernak commented. "If other bodies cooperate, the county board will throw all its power behind a movement to widen the county highways to at least fifty feet. No time should be lost. The Sunday rush at present is unbearable."

The highway committee also passed a recommendation urged by Commissioner Frank J. Wilson in which the board was authorized to purchase or condemn Halsted street from the city limits south to 147th street for the purpose of improving the highway.

HIGH CITIZENS ASK FORCED ARMY DRILLS BE BARRED IN SCHOOLS

Boston, Mass., June 1.—(AP)—The abolition of compulsory military training in schools and colleges of Massachusetts is urged in a survey by the Massachusetts committee on militarism in education and signed by college presidents, clergymen, lawyers, and others.

The report charges that the purpose of the war department "apparently is to go on, putting military training into one school after another, until all boys over 14 years of age enrolled in educational institutions are being drilled to take part in war."

The report is signed by President William Allan Neilson of Smith and Lee, Dean Roscoe Pound of the Harvard law school, Bishop William F. Anderson of the Methodist Episcopal church, President Mary E. Woolley of Mount Holyoke college, Judge George W. Anderson of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals, Prof. Francis B. Sayre of the Harvard law school, Dean David L. Edsall of the Harvard School of medicine, James P. Murphy, manufacturer, author, and life member of the corporation of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and Rabbi Harry Levy and seventeen other prominent citizens.

INDIANA HIGH COURT UPHOLDS POSSESSION CLAUSE OF DRY LAW

Indianapolis, Ind., June 1.—(Special)—The constitutionality of the "possession" clause of the Wright bone-dry law was upheld today by the State Supreme court.

In denying a new trial for Matthew Guetling of Evansville the court declared the possession of intoxicating liquor for personal use may be forbidden by a state without infringing on the constitutional rights of citizens.

Constitutionality of the "possession" section, which makes ownership prima facie evidence of intent to sell, was asserted on grounds of its "uncertainty" in that it bars possession without providing legal means to disposing of any liquor on hand when the act becomes effective. The court held Guetling had "plenty of time" to dispose of his supply.

10 years old, and Charles S. were not seriously hurt.

The driver of the cab, Joseph Janett, of 840 Rush street, was arraigned on a charge of manslaughter in the West Chicago avenue court yesterday, but his case was continued until June 18 to await the inquest verdict.

3,200 MUSICIANS GET WAGE BOOST TO $2 AN HOUR

Musicians employed in hotels, cafes, and cabarets have been granted a wage increase from $1.50 to $2 an hour, according to James Petrie, president of the Chicago Federation of Musicians.

The union executive said that about 3,200 union players will get the raise. Under the present agreement union musicians are employed in hotel and cafe orchestras for six and eight hour periods. Some of the hotel orchestras affected in the wage increase matter are those playing in the Drake, Sherman, Congress, Morrison, Edgewater Beach, Blackstone, and Cooper Carlton hotels.

POLAND LOOKS NEW PRESIDENT AS MAN OF ST

Pilsudski the Real Confusion Gro

BY FLOYD GIBBO
(Chicago Tribune Press Service)

WARSAW, June 1.—(Polish)—Today of an obscure little of Lemberg professor as president of the republic has thrown the republic into deeper confusion than before May 12, when Marshal Pilsudski took power and made himself the capital and over government at a cost of 500,000 wounded.

The reason for the confusion is the fact that Prof. Ignacy Pilsudski, the president-elect, admitted a straw man without power. He is a simple instrument in the hands of the republic.

He is a simple instrument in the hands of the republic. He is a simple instrument in the hands of the republic. He is a simple instrument in the hands of the republic.

POLAND LOOKS ON NEW PRESIDENT AS MAN OF STRAW

Pilsudski the Real Ruler; Confusion Grows.

WARSAW, June 1.—Poland's election today of an obscure little College of Lemberg professor as president of the republic has thrown the political scene into deeper confusion than existed before May 12, when Marshal Pilsudski turned his cannon and machine guns on the capital and overthrew the government at a cost of 500 lives and 1,000 wounded.

The reason for the confusion exists in the fact that Prof. Ignacy Moscicki, a man without power or voice, is a simple instrument in the hands of Marshal Pilsudski as dictator, who still runs the interim government as the master of war and before whom the nation stands in bewilderment.

Pilsudski Silent on Program.

Nobody in Poland, even Marshal Pilsudski's closest friends, can get an expression from his program or plans. Nobody in Poland knows where to expect orders or instructions, nor where the ship of state is drifting. The police and public services are becoming demoralized. The officials of the foreign office and daily find officers and generals at their sides, and no one is in reality in authority. The postoffice is in utter turmoil. Telegrams which the foreign office orders sent are held up by the military.

Warsaw was startled into utter perplexity today when Marshal Pilsudski, after facing the election by the assembly of Prof. Moscicki as president, suddenly refused to permit him to take the oath of the republic. This ceremony, which the constitution provides must take place immediately after the election, has been postponed until Friday noon.

Moscicki Blames Lack of Shirt.

The theory with which Warsaw is endeavoring to explain the sudden change is that Marshal Pilsudski is unable to arrange for the new president to be sworn in without taking the oath to support the constitution. The president-elect said that the day was due to the fact that he did not have the proper clothes in Warsaw—not even a clean shirt—for the ceremony.

In the meantime, the diet, senators, and representatives of Poland are prisoners in Warsaw. They are allowed to circulate under guard in town, but they cannot leave it. The elections today disclosed the exciting fact that despite Marshal Pilsudski's threats, the majority registered for his candidate, Prof. Moscicki, was reduced when compared with the vote for Gen. Pilsudski yesterday, while the opposition gained a few votes. Marshal Pilsudski's candidate was only through the support of Jewish and Polish minorities. With anxiety, Poland points to the fact that when in a previous election, Marshal Pilsudski gained the presidential post with the support of Jewish minorities, he was assassinated six days after he was proclaimed president.

Guard Moscicki's House.

Marshal Pilsudski is aware of the danger threatening his president-elect. A strong guard was rushed to the house of the very much surprised professor as soon as he was elected president. Prof. Moscicki also realizes the danger of his position. His attitude is that of a man who is aware of the danger of his position. He is aware of the danger of his position. He is aware of the danger of his position.

HUNDREDS SEE POLICEMAN SHOT IN BANDIT DUEL

Robs Woman; Battles
Citizens; Escapes.

Hundreds of persons looked on last night as Policeman Patrick Murphy of the Albany Park station fought a pistol battle in front of 4856 Drake avenue with a sheikish bandit who, with the aid of a companion, had wrested $700 from Mrs. Sarah Feldon in front of her home at 3416 Lawrence avenue and had tried unsuccessfully to wrench off her diamond earrings.

Murphy was shot four times, three in the shoulder and once in the neck.

As he fell to the sidewalk Henry Schwartz of 5016 North Ridgeway avenue, leaped from his automobile and seized the policeman's weapon. Backing away to a tree he fired on the bandit.

Approved by the voters of Cook county less than two months ago, the zoo is near the construction stage.

John T. McCutcheon, president of the society, said yesterday. Plans for the $4,000,000 project are being drawn by Edwin H. Clark, 8 East Huron street.

With five committees, recently appointed, organized, all work on the project is going ahead rapidly. The zoo is to be built on land most of which was donated by Mrs. Rockefeller McCormick.

For several hours it was believed no lives had been lost. Tonight President E. E. Olcott of the Hudson River Day line reported that Mrs. Hoag and her little daughter were unaccounted for.

brandishing their revolvers, were running in opposite directions, the crowd giving way for them.

One of the men disappeared into a passageway. The other, carrying the money, dashed west to Drake avenue and turned north. There he was cornered. The dog over which he stumbled and which showed fight was owned by Frank Brown, 4820 Drake avenue.

Brown's mother, Mrs. Margaret Brown, and Miss Vera Stanecky of the same address found the $700 loot dropped by the robber and turned it over to Mrs. Feldon. She gave a $50 reward.

Policeman Murphy was taken to the Swedish Covenant hospital, where it was said his chance of recovery was good.

Squads from the Albany Park district and the detective bureau were thrown into the search for the bandit, who wore a double breasted brown suit and a brown fedora hat.

Bomb Slayer on Way to Begin Life Term 5 Days After Crime

Muskegon, Mich., June 1.—[Special.]—Asa Bartlett, Ku Klux Klansman and township constable, was on his way tonight to Marquette prison to begin his life sentence for the Three Lakes tavern bomb murders of last Thursday.

He was sentenced this morning after a hearing lasting only a few minutes and within five days of the deaths of his victims, August Krubaech, Krubaech's daughter, Jeanette, and the latter's fiancé, William Franke of Chicago.

Enters Pleas of Guilty.

Martlett signed a confession of the murders Sunday. Heavily guarded, he was brought before Circuit Court Judge Vanderwerp this morning. "You are charged with murder," Judge Vanderwerp said, after the charge had been read to the prisoner. "How do you wish to plead?"

"The crime you have committed is so terrible I would not trust myself to say anything about it," the judge went on. "You are sentenced to serve the rest of your natural life in the house of correction at Marquette."

Judge Vanderwerp declared he regretted that, under the Michigan law, he could not sentence the prisoner to death.

Tells of Making Bomb.

In his confession, which was withheld until today, Bartlett described how he had constructed the bomb, which he intended for Krubaech, his political enemy. Last Wednesday he decided to send it, he declared, and drove to Muskegon, where he placed it in the mail. He did not intend to injure any one but Krubaech, he said.

The bomb was received at the tavern the next morning and was up wrapped by Miss Krubaech and Franke, who thought it was a wedding present.

SCOTT'S LETTER ON PRISON BRIBE OFFER IS BARED

Slayer's Note to Be Used in Battle for Life.

CRIMINAL COURT.
William Warren and Kenneth Lister, who were charged with the murder of Dr. George S. Schumacher, were today brought before Judge William J. Brennan for trial.

Attorney William Scott, who made public a letter yesterday which purports to have been written by Russell Scott, the Chicago prisoner for the murder of Dr. Schumacher, today told the jury that the letter was a forgery.

Scott was read from the gallows for killing a loop drug store clerk in a holdup by a jury verdict that he was insane. Recently he was returned to the custody of the sheriff here by the Chicago authorities on the ground that he is sane. Later it was said that Scott must be adjudged sane by a jury before he can be brought to the gallows.

The letter produced by Attorney Stewart appears to bear out the defense theory that Scott is suffering from delusions, and is expected to be used in his defense in the new sanity trial, which was set yesterday for June 11 before Judge Marcus Kavanaugh.

Objects to Court Commission.
Mr. Stewart objected on behalf of Scott to the appointment of a sanity commission by the court. The case was called before Acting Chief Justice William J. Brennan.

"The finding of the court appointed alienists might be taken by the jury as a reflection on both the state and defense alienists," he said. He asked for more time in which to prepare his case and this was granted. Judge Kavanaugh set the precedent of appointing a commission of alienists in the Costello murder case recently.

After telling the poor condition of his health, the Scott letter says:

"I know all about the proposition that [a doctor is named] made some time ago and asked me if you had been able to raise the $2,000 yet. I told him about the dance being a failure, not having the money, and that I did not think you or dad could raise that much money at this time."

"He then asked me if I thought you could raise $3,000. I told him that I did not know, but could write and ask you. He said if you raised this amount right away I would be out of this place inside of thirty days and out of jail a few months later."

"He said that if the money was going to be raised it would have to be done at once on certain parties at Springfield were getting impatient and that unless their amount was forthcoming inside of the next few weeks I would be sorry and would have to suffer the consequences."

The rest of the letter was a description of his misery in the prison and the beatings administered by guards to other inmates. He said that one patient, a Negro, had been beaten to death.

He ended with a warning to keep the plan to escape away from a certain Sir John in Canada, who has fled in his talks as the enemy who pursues him, relentlessly, spending money to prosecute him and keep him in a cell.

SUFFRAGE CHIEF OF U. S. SCORED BY MRS. BELMONT

Blames Mrs. Carrie Catt
for Row in Paris.

BY HENRY WALES.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

PARIS, June 1.—The split in the international feminist movement, begun with the exclusion of the National Woman's party from the International Suffrage alliance, was widened today when Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, president of the party, turned her guns on Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, leader of the American woman suffrage movement and of the League of Women Voters.

"I regret the action of the congress," she said. "I had hoped for the solidarity of women all over the world. But personally I do not regret it."

"I do not admire the methods, advice or influence of Mrs. Catt," she said. "I worked with Mrs. Catt for nine years. I took her out of obscurity. During those years I believed in unity and that we should accept each other's views as best we could, but I always objected to her idea of what was wise. I would be sorry and would have to suffer to me to be better for woman suffrage to do so."

A Matter of Dollars.

"This is the first time since 1909 that I have said anything against Mrs. Catt. But I wish to make it clear, however, that Mrs. Catt has not failed to oppose us on every occasion. In the present case her hand is evident. She contributed heavily to the International Suffrage alliance and it would have been difficult for them to go against her wishes. I am sorry on account of the French feminists, who were hard put to get funds for the present congress."

"Mrs. Catt promised 50,000 francs ($1,640) on condition that they raise another 50,000 francs. I promised to contribute an additional 50,000 francs. But naturally, I will not do so now."

"The woman's movement is like evolution. It cannot be stopped, but this action of the alliance will give the unsympathetic patriarchy a handle to use against the women."

"Future Belongs to Us."

"The League of Women Voters has some splendid women in its ranks. We always are glad to cooperate with them. The world alliance has some splendid women, but it is too bad the alliance should be hampered by women who are not up-to-date."

"The future belongs to us. We shall join forces with women all over the world who are not content to wait another generation before society recognizes the same terms with men the creative ability of women. It would have been wiser for the alliance to have shown itself in favor of the solidarity of women."

Mrs. Belmont also announced she has purchased property facing the national capital at Washington, where she plans to build a new $1,000,000 building to house the National Woman's party. It will be a sort of international parliament, she explained, where the women of all countries will meet.

LORD & THOMAS AND LOGAN INC. OF N. Y. MERGED

A. D. Lasker Heads Board of New Advertising Firm

The formation of a new international advertising agency, merging the businesses now conducted by Lord & Thomas of Chicago and Thomas F. Logan Inc. of New York is announced by Albert D. Lasker, former chairman of the United States shipping board and for many years chairman of the board and president of Lord & Thomas.

The new corporation will be known as Lord & Thomas and Logan, Mr. Lasker will be chairman of the board, and Mr. Logan will be president. Other executive officers of the corporation will be elected from the officers of the two merged companies.

Mr. Lasker, in making the announcement said:

"The new corporation of Lord & Thomas and Logan, in capital, personnel, and volume of business, will rank as one of the largest institutions of its kind in the world, placing an annual volume in excess of $20,000,000. It will bring together one of the oldest and one of the youngest among the leading advertising agencies."

Lord & Thomas, with a record of 33 years of continuous operation, were pioneers in introducing printed salesmanship. Thomas F. Logan, Inc., although organized only seven years ago, has already won a notable position in the advertising field under the management of Mr. Logan, who will become president of the consolidated company.

"The corporation will have principal offices in New York and Chicago, with branch offices in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Washington, and London."

That's the satisfying thing about this department—you can buy things for a whole meal that can be put together with little or no preparation, and have at the same time a repeat both appetizing and wholesome.

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY BLUE RIBBON WEDNESDAY

For 260 weeks, BLUE RIBBON WEDNESDAY has been setting the pace for food sellers—many features established as a part of our Wednesday sales program have, by the very brilliance of their success, attracted imitators—not only in Chicago, but in all parts of the United States. A momentary flash, and these followers are gone—forgotten about, while the solid, dependable quality of this store's Blue Ribbon features have won an unshakable place in the confidence of Chicago food shoppers.

Blue Ribbon Coffee—Bacon—Doughnuts—Parisian Chocolates; these are the "BIG FOUR" in the catalog of Blue Ribbon favorites, every item a leader in its own class. IRON WORKERS UNION ENDS ONE DAY STRIKE

Structural Men Stop
Over Wage Boos

After a one day strike the members of the Architectural Iron Workers' union met last night and unanimously returned to work, pending adjustment of demand for a wage increase from $1.37 to $1.50 an hour.

And this afternoon official structural iron workers' members of which struck to hold a conference with representatives of the Iron League of Chicago in close touch with the building trade union say that some adjustment made which will send the strike to work.

Also Asking Pay Boos
The structural iron workers are asking for a pay boost from $1.50 an hour and the right to work in the event that some adjustment made which will send the strike to work.

In the latter demand both of iron workers found a setback when they began negotiations for new agreements. The union insisted that the unions' democratic strike rights be before dealing with the wage issue.

A statement issued by the Iron Workers' union said that other locals of iron in the east and middle west in the $1.50 rate and that a local local is entitled to similar action.

It was reported yesterday that sheet metal workers have a five year agreement with a contractors at a $1.50 an hour

IRON WORKERS' UNION ENDS ITS ONE DAY STRIKE

Structural Men Still Out Over Wage Boost.

After a one day strike the 600 members of the Architectural Iron Workers' union met last night and voted unanimously to return to work this morning pending adjustment of their demands for a wage increase from $1.27 1/2 to $1.50 an hour.

At this afternoon officials of the Structural Iron Workers' union, the members of which struck yesterday along with the architectural men, will hold a conference with representatives of the Iron League of Chicago. Those in close touch with the building situation say that some adjustment will be made which will send the strikers back to work.

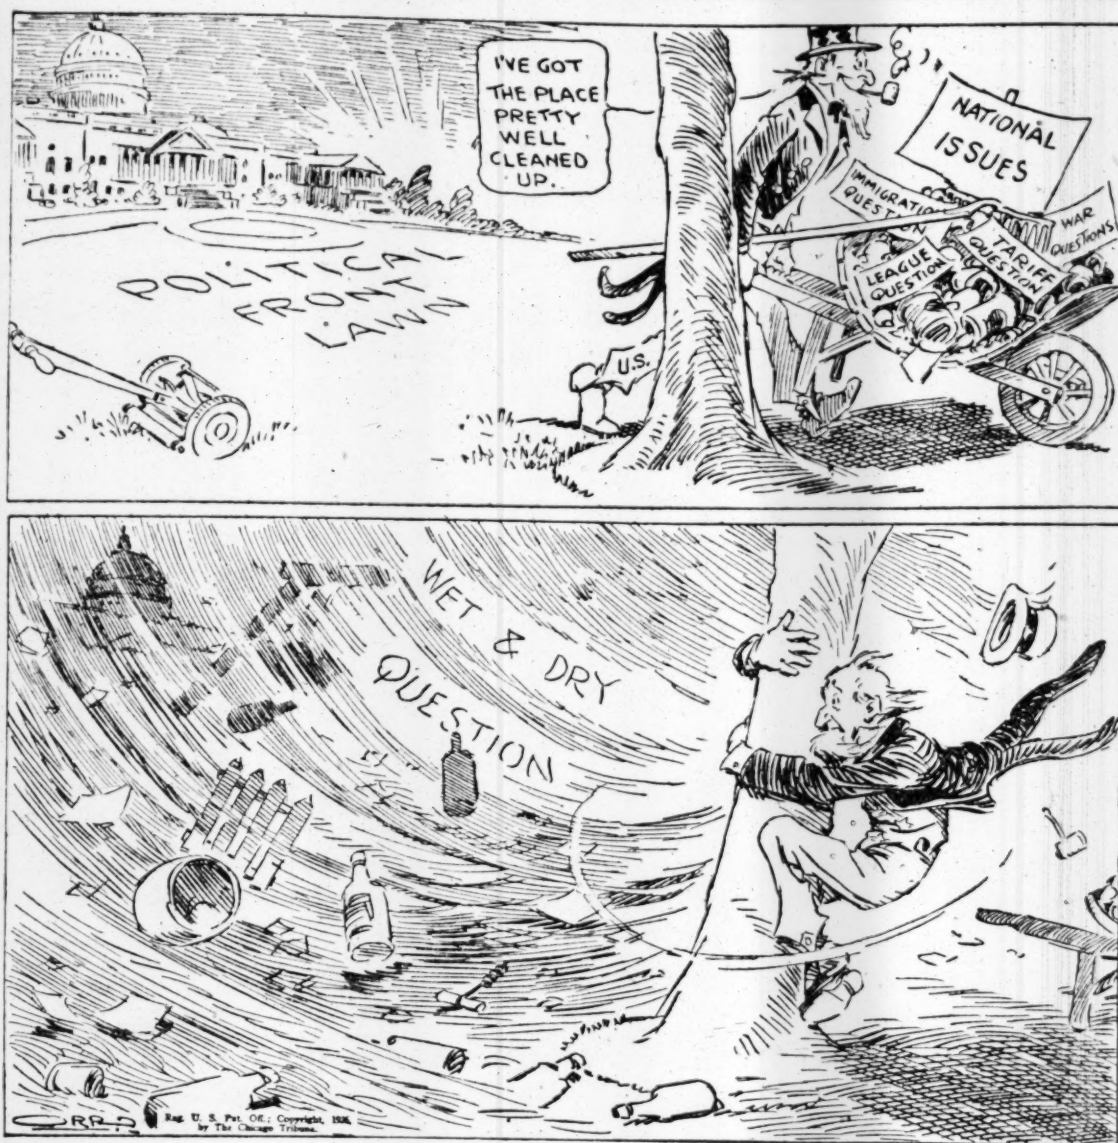

Also Asking Pay Boost.
The structural iron workers also are asking for a pay boost from $1.37 1/2 to $1.50 an hour and the right to call strikes in the event that nonunion men are employed in any of the other building trades.

In the latter demand both unions of iron workers found a stumbling block when they began negotiations for new agreements. The employers insisted that the union's demand for sympathetic strike rights be adjusted before dealing with the wage question.

Say Other Locals Get $1.50.
A statement issued by the Structural Iron Workers' union yesterday said that other locals of iron workers in the east and middle west are getting the $1.50 rate and that the Chicago local is entitled to similar consideration.

It was reported yesterday that the steel workers have signed a two year agreement with a group of contractors at a $1.50 an hour rate.

WET PETITIONS OF DOWNSTATE ELATE BRENNAN

Flow of Responses Gets to Headquarters.

Volstead referendum blanks sent downstate last Friday began yesterday to come back to Brennan headquarters in the Hotel Sherman, filed out in such numbers that the Democratic nominee for United States senator were an "I told you so" look all day.

The first mail of the morning alone brought in 1,500 signatures, and there was a steady flow from that time. The campaign leaders were pleased with several factors disclosed by the lists. In the first place the voters seemed to be signing them in the dry counties as readily as anywhere else. It was not an unusual thing to find several sheets filled out over the week-end by a single precinct committeeman.

Many Women Sign. And it was noted also that the sheets were dotted with the names of women. One of the arguments on this subject has been that the women, particularly the downstate women, are dry; but E. J. Kelly, Brennan campaign manager, asserted even these first returns prove there are many women even in the farming communities who feel the prohibition law must be changed.

And in some places the registration in favor of the referendum was almost unanimous. Manager Kelly said it probably would have been if more time had been allowed for the circulation of the petitions.

As an example, the town of Sandoval sent in 125 signatures, that number apparently having been gathered by one man in two days' time. It was said that this indicates a substantial majority for the affirmative on the little ballot question, and similar situations were said to be indicated in other towns.

Mr. Brennan has changed his intention of appearing before the city council committee on judiciary tomorrow to ask that his name be eliminated from resolutions endorsing the referendum. Because he is extremely busy getting ready to go to New York the next day he will send a letter containing the request.

Vote Announcement Postponed. Because of a court contest intended to force the election commissioners to proclaim the vote cast for the dead man on the April Republican ballot, Francis P. Brady, candidate for re-nomination for clerk of the Appellate court, County Clerk Switzer postponed his announcement of the primary vote. The mandamus action brought in the name of Gustav Kurland, 125 South Crawford avenue, was before Judge Pam, who postponed it until Friday.

The previously announced Dunne-O'Connell Democratic contest was filed in the county court by Robert Jerome Dunne, who received 30,057 votes for board of review, in contrast to the 102,080 recorded for Henry Kohl, the regular organization candidate. In political circles this is considered merely a spite contest. It was such a one-sided race that the younger Dunne is not believed to have any thought that he could win by a recount.

Police Frustrate Attempt to Blow Safe; Arrest 3

Sergeants James Coleman and Peter Bernacchi of the South Clark street station, frustrated the attempt made by three men to crack a safe early yesterday in the offices of the Chicago Flag and Decorating company, 1315 South Wabash avenue. The men arrested are: James Joyce, 5622 South Morgan street; Joseph Walsh, 5442 South Loomis street, and John O'Neill, 5226 Justine street.

1928 BOOM FOR BORAH SENSED IN DRYS' APPLAUSE

Ardor Over Baltimore Talk Starts Rumor.

and the laws when written. To disregard our constitution, to evade it, to nullify it, while still refusing to change it, is to plant the seeds of destruction in the heart of the nation—is to confess before the world that we have neither the moral courage nor the intellectual sturdiness for self-government." Senator Borah laughingly refused to discuss his presidential chances as a champion of home dry prohibition. He said that after congress adjourns he will make some speeches against the state referendums promoted by the wets in New York, Illinois, and other states, but would do so on his own initiative and not at the instance of the Anti-Saloon league or other organization.

Answering Senator Borah's utterances, Senator Edge (Rep., N. J.), a modification leader, said:

"I do not agree for one moment that, under the terms of the constitution, the Volstead act could not be legally and helpfully modified. What's more, as I have frequently pointed out on the floor of the senate, to be fair with the people who authorized the 18th amendment, it should be so modified."

Not Proposing Nullification.

"Neither are modificationists proposing to nullify the constitution. The dries, in effect, did that when they made citizens criminals when indulging in half of one per cent beverage. We could not nullify the constitution. If we modified the Volstead act beyond the limitations of the 18th amendment, the Supreme court would set it aside.

"However, I haven't any criticism of Senator Borah's suggestion that to secure intoxicating beverages the constitution must be amended, and that that can only be legally accomplished in one well known way."

"Any statement, however, that the Volstead act cannot be legally modified by congress and that such modification would not, to some extent, relieve the existing spirit of protest and challenge is indefensible and misleading."

"I gathered from Senator Borah's Baltimore speech he was not opposed to having a resubmission of the principles of the 18th amendment in the manner proposed by the constitution. That cannot be done except by a two-thirds vote of the senate. I recognize the distinction of congress to so act until they hear from home and would gladly join with the senator from Idaho in any practical and fair resubmission of the question."

Any proposal, however, must recognize enlightened public opinion and the failure of seven years' effort at enforcement and present a reasonable and practical revision of the 18th amendment along the state local option plan proposed by Senator Bruce."

Cheese Sauce on Toast

3 tablespoons butter.
3 tablespoons flour.
1 1/2 cups milk.
1/4 teaspoon salt or more to taste.
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce.
1/4 teaspoon mixed mustard.
1/2 cup grated cheese.

Melt butter, add flour and when smooth add milk gradually, stirring until thick and creamy. Add cheese and seasonings and cook (over hot water preferably) until cheese is melted and flour is thoroughly cooked. Serve with a sprinkle of paprika over the top.

Raisin and Nut Betty

2 cups raisins, seedless.
1/2 cup nuts, chopped.
2 cups bread crumbs.
1/2 cup brown sugar.
4 tablespoons butter.
1 lemon, juice and rind.

Put in a buttered pudding dish a layer of bread crumbs, then one of the raisins and nuts with sugar, butter, lemon juice and thinly shaved rind. Continue with alternating layers to top of dish. Pour in 1/2 cup water, cover and bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees, twenty minutes. Remove cover and bake twenty minutes more until browned.

Meat Loaf

2 lbs. chopped round steak.
1/2 lb. chopped salt pork sausage.
1 cup whole white bread crumbs.
1 cup tomato pulp or 2 tomatoes.
1 chopped onion.
1 egg.
1 to 2 teaspoons salt.
1/4 teaspoon black pepper.

Mix all ingredients and form into a roll or press into a loaf pan. Bake in a moderate oven, 400 degrees reducing to 350, for 1 1/2 hours, basting occasionally. If baked as a roll, the sides are crisp and delicious, but may not slice quite as easily for cold meat.

LIEUT. WINGE IS TAKEN IN CICERO ON BEER CHARGE

Chicago Policeman Denies Unloading Truck.

Police Lieutenant Albert Winge of the Chicago police last night was arrested in Cicero on charges of conspiracy to violate the Volstead act, and the sale, possession, and transportation of intoxicating beverages. The charges were the outgrowth of a beer seizure in Cicero yesterday morning and the arrest, on a charge of conspiracy, of Winge, who is on furlough from the Chicago police department. Winge and the Cicero police told widely divergent stories. The police version was that two Cicero policemen had observed two men unloading a barrel of beer at 5715 Roosevelt road. They arrested one of the men, but the other escaped among pedestrians on the sidewalk in front of the place.

Arrest Winge Later.
Two other Cicero policemen went back to the place some time later and arrested Lieut. Winge. Then the first two policemen identified Winge as the man who got away.
Lieut. Winge, displaying tickets for the day's races at Aurora, said that he was on the way to the track and stopped into the saloon for a few minutes, when the policemen entered and told him he was under arrest.
Lieut. Winge was arrested at 9:30 o'clock in the morning and was kept in the office of Police Captain Theodore Srobova, Cicero, until 3 o'clock, at which time Srobova was asked by prohibition officials to turn the Chicago officer over to the prohibition department. Instead Srobova gave his prisoner into the custody of Special Agents Roche and Converse of the special intelligence unit. Agent Converse at first demanded a bond of $10,000 for Winge, but this later was cut in half under of United States Commissioner Henry C. Bettler.

Mayor to Act.
Mayor Dever said that he probably will cause charges of conduct unbecoming an officer to be placed against Lieut. Winge before the police trial.

AMAZON VALLEY CAN SUPPLY WORLD WITH RUBBER, SAVANT SAYS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
Washington, D. C., June 1. (Special.)—Conditions in the Amazon valley are suitable for the growing of enough rubber to supply the world, provided proper measures are taken to protect the crop against diseases, says James R. Weir, pathologist of the department of agriculture.
As a member of the expedition of the United States department of agriculture and commerce investigating the sources of crude rubber in the Amazon valley in 1923, Mr. Weir studied the diseases of Hevea Brasiliensis and related rubber producing species.
"Hevea in the Amazon valley is attacked by a number of fungous diseases which result in reduced vigor, rapid death, or slow starvation of trees if the attack is continuous," says Mr. Weir. "The planter who may contemplate the growing of rubber in that region may expect to find it necessary to combat the natural enemies of the tree."

board in case the charges are substantiated.
The Winge case was one of numerous items of Volstead news in Chicago and vicinity during the day, the prohibition department having continued its drive against the near north side.

Bride, 16, Disappointed at $20 a Week Alimony

Mrs. Helene Novak, 4819 South Sedley avenue, 16 year old bride of a week, was sadly disappointed yesterday when she was given only $20 weekly alimony from John Novak, 60 years old, wealthy owner of a chain of meat markets. She had asked $50 a week, but the judge declared that Cindarella marriages were looked on with disfavor in his court. He ordered an investigation of the marriage.

HERRIOT BLOCKS ANGLO-U. S. PLAN TO SAVE FRANC

London Financier Reveals Inside Story.

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
LONDON, June 1.—The Tribune has received from a leading London financier the following story of the development of the French financial situation, based on close knowledge and familiarity with all the documents in the negotiations.

During the general strike, this informant says, Jean Parmentier, French financial expert, came to London to appeal to Benjamin Strong, governor of the federal reserve bank of New York, for a large loan. Mr. Strong refused to receive him except in the presence of Montagu Norman, governor of the Bank of England.

The Anglo-U. S. Demands.

The three put on paper the demands of the Anglo-American financiers, as follows:

1. A general plan for financial reconstruction must be prepared by a committee of experts.
2. The plan must be accepted in writing by the principal party leaders.
3. The gold offered for security must be exported.
4. Legislation to guarantee property interests against attack by the socialists.

With this list of demands, Mr. Parmentier returned to Paris, arriving when the franc was at its lowest point. The government, in a panic, agreed, and the demands were sent to M. Herriot, former premier and leader of the Socialists, who agreed to accept.

Herriot Withdraws O. K.

Then the government started a campaign to hush the franc, and M. Herriot, seeing the improvement, changed his mind and refused to sign the terms he had agreed to verbally.

Already over $20,000,000 has been spent by the government to support the franc, which is slipping again, and the government has been warned by London that the situation is hopeless unless there is an immediate and drastic reform.

CHINESE ENVOY AT GENEVA HURLS DARE AT BRITAIN

Demands World Scrap Unequal Treaties.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
[Copyright, 1926, By The Chicago Tribune.]
GENEVA, June 1.—During Great Britain to attack China either diplomatically or forcibly, Chao Chih-chu, the Chinese minister to Rome, angered by alleged insults from Sir Malcolm Delevingne, the British representative on the opium advisory committee, informed the league of nations and the world that China soon would tear up the unequal treaties which the powers are refusing to abrogate.

"An Insult to China."
"You insult my government and I am not afraid to insult yours," replied Chao Chih-chu.

He said that Britain, during the opium war, was unable to force opium on China, but is unable to do so now.

"China for 4,000 years has been able to take care of herself and can do so again," the Chinese delegate said. "Today I have the courage to make a statement publicly against the foreign interference with China's internal affairs. I can inform the committee that the time is nearing an end when China will tolerate any longer the interference of the foreigners."

New Row on Arms.
GENEVA, June 1.—(AP)—The disarmament discussions got into fresh difficulties today when the military subcommittee separated without reaching an agreement on what constitutes peace time armaments. The question was whether trained reserves should be included.

He will return to Chicago in the fall.

DRUSES INFLAME SYRIA FOR WAR ON CHRISTIANS

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]
TRIPOLI, Syria, May 30.—(Delayed)—Ancient Tripoli, with machine guns in the clock tower and sand bags and barbed wire around the public buildings, is preparing to defend itself against a religious uprising inspired by the "die hard" rebels. The rebels refuse the French High Commissioner Juvenel's peace terms and in desperation are sending out bands throughout the Mohammedan and Druse sections to embroil Syria in an anti-Christian war.

HERESY APPEAL DISMISSED, BUT MAY BE REVIVED

BY THE REV. W. B. NORTON.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Baltimore, Md., June 1.—[Special.]

The famous Gantzhall Parker case, regarding the ordination of two young men by the New York presbytery, in the face of their refusal to affirm belief in the virgin birth and in certain interpretations of the Bible, was before the general assembly of the Presbyterian church today.

The assembly, sitting as a judicial court, approved the decision of the permanent judicial committee in dismissing the complaint of Dr. Walter

D. Buchanan, pastor of the Broadway

Presbyterian church, New York, a fundamentalist leader, against the dismissing of the case.

There was no demonstration when the decision was announced. It was to carry out the will of the general assembly expressed at Columbus last year, which directed the New York presbytery to deal with the cases of alleged heresy.

A Technical Victory.

The dismissal of Dr. Buchanan's complaint was based on the contention of the New York presbytery that it was not defying the will of the general assembly, but was seeking to proceed in the cases involved. In this regard the modernists gained the case.

However, the report of the judicial committee affirmed the right of the general assembly to compel a presbytery to act in accordance with its decision. This, the fundamentalists affirmed, was what they were contending for. The New York presbytery declared the general assembly had no right to decide on questions of doctrine without sending the questions down to the presbyteries for action. The presbytery also contended that in the matter of ordaining men to the ministry, it is the right of the presbytery to decide on their qualifications and not of the general assembly.

There was no demonstration when

the decision was announced. It was declared by some that the question will come again next year.

One reason given by the New York Presbytery for its delay was the belief that they should wait until the report of the special commission on the interest in the church was made. This commission made its report without deciding on the particular case.

Council to Study Divorce.

The question of divorce which has caused annually a five discussion was remanded today to the general council of the church, composed of twenty-three men, including the moderator, the stated clerk, certain ex-moderators, and church leaders among the ministers and laymen, for a year of study.

The question arose from a demand to know whether the church law should be changed so as to make adultery the only ground for divorce or whether willful and continuous desertion should remain as an additional ground for divorce.

The importance of the divorce question was stressed by several speakers as a reason why the whole question ought to be placed in the hands of the most important body in the general assembly.

SUPREME COURT ENDS HEARING ON EVOLUTION CASE

Nashville, Tenn., June 1.—[AP.]—The question of whether Tennessee's law against teaching the theory of evolution in state supported schools is constitutional was formally placed before its Supreme court today for decision. An opinion is not expected before the fall term.

The case, brought to the state's highest court on appeal from the conviction last year of John T. Scopes, a Dayton school teacher, who was prosecuted by William Jennings Bryan, as one of the great commoners in the history of the state, was argued today and yesterday before five justices.

Clarence Darrow of Chicago, who opposed Bryan during the trial at Dayton last summer, concluded the argument for Scopes today with a plea for the "intellectual freedom of man."

He was one of six attorneys who appeared for Scopes. K. T. McConico of Nashville, speaking for the state, asked the court to reject the "quieting and unclean" efforts which he said were being made to teach the theory of evolution in the schools and termed the theory "this animal dogma."

Three Privates "Borrow" Plane for Joy Ride; 2 Dead

Leavenworth, Kas., June 1.—[AP.]—Two soldiers from Fort Leavenworth, who last night took possession of an airplane and started off on a joy ride met death a short time later when the "borrowed" plane fell into the Missouri river near here. A third soldier, who was with them, was rescued after a swim to safety. The dead are Private Otto C. Hathaway, St. Joseph, Mo., and Private William R. Garrett, Lexington, Okla.

CHANGING FROM BOY TO SHEIK IS HIS UNDOING

Edmund Edwards by day, John Kennedy, 17 years old, 5323 Calumet avenue, an office boy for the Johns-Manville company, at night, on the smooth floors and to the saxophones means was a slender sheik.

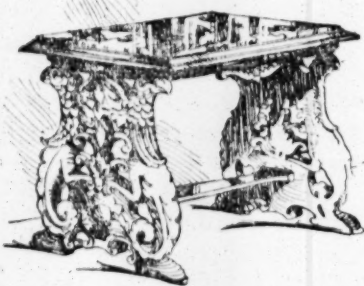

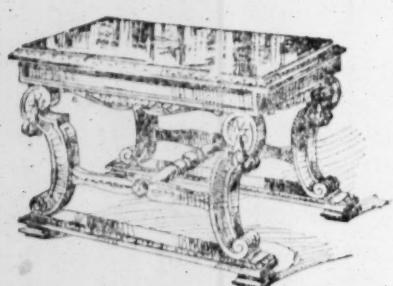

He admitted yesterday to the police that this sort of magic change costs money. It cost his own first. Then it began to be expensive to his fellow employees, he confessed. Girl singing, rhapsody missed change. One of them lost a purse containing some money and a check.

That check caused the arrest of Kennedy. The police figured yesterday that his high stepping had cost the youth's associates $200. He had another employee's check for $43 in his pocket when caught, the officers said. He will appear in Boy's court today.

MERRY LIFE OF BOOTLEGGER IN U. S. TOLD BY ONE

(Copyright, 1926, by the New York Times.)
LONDON, June 1.—James W. Smith, an Englishman, who has been bootlegging in America for some time, is relating his adventures in a London newspaper. He says he has been in the business for some time and has made a good deal of money.

"I was taking a load of 50 cases by car from Tampa to Sarasota, Fla., and just before reaching the end of my journey I saw a sheriff sitting on his motorcycle at a crossroads. We went past him at about 50 miles an hour, but he hit my friend in the back of the neck, quite good shooting in the circumstances. When I returned he was still there and I pulled out my gun and shot him in the thigh."

"I went to a hotel and danced till 3, when the sheriff's men came after me. When I came up for trial I found I had 15 witnesses from the bootlegging business and as many girls to swear that I had not left the hotel that night. Another case of mistaken identity was the explanation."

San Sheriff's Car in River.
"I remember several encounters with sheriffs which were never successful. One drew up his car on a bridge to stop me, but while he was examining shots with my companions I started his car and ran it into the river. At one time we ran our own brewery. We had an electrical plant which aged whisky 24 years in 24 hours. We were raided by 52 federal agents."

"Finally we were running in a cargo when a cutter appeared and carried away some of our stock from the decks with its 3 pounder. We replied with our machine gun, and when we hit shore we lost it to the hotel. Presently the federal people came, I made a grab for my gun, but was not quick enough and got a bullet in my thigh. After that came deportation."

"U. S. Laughs at Smuggler Tips."
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

Ottawa, Ont., June 1.—In further effort to trace the circuitous routes of liquor shipments from Canadian distilleries to the United States, the Canadian customs inquiry committee today questioned George Lodge, Canadian customs examiner at Walkerville, Lodge said that in accordance with the Canada-United States anti-smuggling treaty, he telephoned to American officials all clearance times of liquor laden vessels.

"Sometimes they laugh," he told the committee. It was also explained to the committee that the huge demand which had driven dollar per gallon denatured alcohol to seven and eight times normal prices originated in the United States.

This Land Is Now a Part of Greater Chicago and Will Pay You Big Profits on Every Foot You Buy.
Read This Carefully and You Will See How You Can Profit by the Growth of Chicago.

This is the way to make money. You can live on this land now and pay for it with your rent money; or you can cultivate it and make money by raising fruits, poultry and vegetables. The money you give away, with nothing but rent receipts to show for it, will buy your Chicago Acres and build your home. Just think of this! This money invested in acres in Greater Chicago, on which you can build your home, will make you big profits, because, in addition to your saving by this method, your land will double and treble in value, thus making you independent for life.

Every acre contains eight city lots. In a short time you should be able to cut up this land into lots, and each lot should sell for as much as you now pay for an acre. In the last few years hundreds of our purchasers have made big money by the increasing values of their land, which was bought with a few dollars down, balance like rent.

The other day one of our customers, who paid $1,850 for five acres of land a few years ago, sold a lot off this piece, 100x150 feet, for $8,000, and still has over 4 1/4 acres left. Property we sold a few years ago at $20 a front foot is now selling at from $150 to $250 a front foot. Acres on the Northwest Side that sold a few years ago for $800 are now selling for as much per lot as the purchasers originally paid for an acre. You can do as well. You can make money in the same way that these people made their money, and you need only a few dollars to start with.

WOMAN, DYING, DENIES FRIEND FIRED THE SHOT

With but one woman friend in the wide world, George Johnson, 53 year old sailor, centered his entire attention on his "Princess Pat," Mrs. Lucie Martine Ware, 28 years old, of 4733 Prairie avenue, until the thought of losing her finally drove him to momentary insanity.

And during that one hysterical moment he shot her twice through the head as they drove home from the theater in a taxi Monday evening, then fired into his own brain a shot that killed him.

Letters found in Mrs. Ware's effects reveal Johnson to have had a deep feeling for her. Seeing no response in her eyes, the man, heart sick and physically ill, decided to put an end to his troubles.

In a dying condition at the Washington Park hospital yesterday, Mrs. Ware told the story of their friendship. "George did not shoot me," she repeated again and again in a whisper. "The shot came from outside. He couldn't have tried to kill me. We were too good friends. There was never any word of love between us. He had been sick three days and couldn't eat anything." Upon hearing he was dead, the woman fainted. "Deep tragedy is the school of great men," Johnson wrote in one letter addressed to Mrs. Ware at Cooks, Mich. "Love is of all the passions the strongest. It attacks simultaneously the head, the heart, and the senses. The only reward of virtue is virtue."

"The longer I know you and the better acquainted I think I get the more mystifying you become to me. I suppose I will have to follow the old rule."

Just what that rule was George seems to have put into effect when he shot the woman who would be nothing more than a friend to him.

BATTLING WOMAN SWINGS FIST AT JUDGE ON BENCH

Her two swinging fists landed Mrs. Ruth Marsh, 29 years old and stylishly dressed, first in Judge Frank M. Padgett's court yesterday and second in the psychopathic hospital.

As she tried to board an elevated train at Wilson avenue, Mrs. Marsh found another woman on step ahead of her. She gave a little push. The other retaliated, and an instant later, the two grappled in battle.

When arraigned before Judge Padgett, Mrs. Marsh, screaming hysterically, battered Policewoman Anna Loucks and was prevented from attacking the judge by two bailiffs.

EVANSTON GETS THE BANNER FOR HEALTH EFFORTS

Evanson won the health championship among Illinois cities of 30,000 to 100,000 on the basis of State Board of Health rating made public yesterday. The Evanston score was 812, and East St. Louis was at the other end of the list with 415. Cicero came eighth with 526 points, with Oak Park fifth on 599.

The efficiency of the health department and work for health promotion generally were taken as the basis of the rating. The survey disclosed that Evanston spends $1 per capita a year for health. Suggestions by which Evanston could be made still better were given as follows:

A social disease clinic for the poor.

Open-air schoolrooms in each school district.

Monthly public health bulletins.

Coordination of the public school program of health education with other phases of school hygiene.

BRIAND'S FIERY ORATORY WINS DEPUTIES' O. K.

BY HENRY WALES.
(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)

(Copyright, 1936, By The Chicago Tribune.)

PARIS, June 1.—By winning a large majority in the chamber of deputies today Premier Aristide Briand enabled himself to go ahead and work out France's financial salvation without a hostile parliament snapping at his heels.

With a burst of his old-time eloquence M. Briand stirred the chamber and won it over to his cause. The deputies by a vote of 313 to 147 squashed the Radicals' demand for an immediate debate on the government's financial policies, which would have brought the resignation of the cabinet.

Demands Support for Cabinet.

"Never since Verdun have I suffered more anxiety. The government, whose life hangs by a thread, cannot take these responsibilities," thundered M. Briand with the courage of despair. "If this government cannot realize unity sufficient to inspire confidence and lack up its work, then it ought to quit. If there is a majority here wanting another fiscal policy, and if the chamber feels that the present government is not capable, let it say so clearly."

The government cannot go on with its every step disputed. If this continues a financial hemorrhage of the weakening country will do it to death."

Premier Briand got a clear majority for the project designed to bring order into the chaos of French finance, with the aid of a newly appointed advisory committee.

Radicals Fight Briand.

The radicals, uneasy because the premier refused to set a date for beginning the actual debate on the financial policy—although he promised to present the project by June 25—abstained from voting, thus creating a situation which arouses some fears. The right groups now are supporting the government, whereas M. Briand has relied largely on the left. Only the Socialists and Communists voted against him today.

However, it is predicted now that if M. Briand can keep the franc from falling below 150 to the pound sterling, his cabinet will survive through the summer.

Fire Sweeps Six Stores on South Side; Loss $75,000

Damage estimated at $75,000 was caused yesterday by a fire which swept through six stores on the first floor of a three-story structure at 89th street and Wentworth avenue. Offices of dentists and real estate dealers on the second floor were also damaged, as were several apartments on the third floor. Residents fled to the street.

FACTORY ROBBED OF DRESSES.
Dresses valued at $1,000 were stolen from the factory of G. W. Lepple, at 308 West Monroe street, early yesterday. The burglary was reported to the Central police.

BRITISH BARRING OF RUSSELL HIT IN PARLIAMENT

LONDON, June 1.—(AP)—The recent refusal of the British government to permit Charles Edward Russell, American Socialist and former editor of one of the Hearst papers in Chicago, to land at Plymouth was given an airing in the house of commons today.

Joseph M. Kenworthy, Labor, asked if Home Secretary Joynson-Hicks was aware that Mr. Russell "was one of our warmest supporters in the United States before the entry of that country into the war."

He demanded to know why, "because the Irish Free State in the exercise of its judgment and discretion did not wish him to land in Ireland, this gentleman should be included by being refused permission to land in England."

The home secretary replied, "I have already told the honorable member that the Irish Free State, a country which is on friendly relations with us and which is part of the empire, in their discretion decided that this gentleman could not land in Ireland. I had no objection to his landing in this country. If he desired to do so there is no reason whatever why he could not enter England."

"Let Irish Do Own Work."

Mr. Kenworthy again asked whether the home secretary was aware of Mr. Russell's support of England before the United States entered the war.

"I heard it stated, but that has nothing to do with the case," the home secretary replied. "He is an American traveler, and I see no reason why he should not enter this country."

Col. Josiah Wedgwood, Liberal, asked why the Free State could not do its own work if it wanted to keep Mr. Russell out of Ireland.

Is it dignified," he asked, "for the British police to do the work of the Irish Free State when there is nothing against him in this country?"

The home secretary replied that there was easy transit between southern Ireland and England. Arrangements had been made for a long time between the Free State and England that the Dublin government should halt the flow of undesirable aliens through Ireland into England, and England had the same reciprocal arrangement.

Lieut. Col. Reinhold Applin, Conservative, asked the home secretary if he were aware that Mr. Russell was employed in supporting the British military mission in their propaganda. The home secretary said he had not that information, but if Col. Applin said it was true he of course accepted it. This ended discussion of the subject.

PRINCETON PLANS NEW RENDEZVOUS FOR FELLOWSHIP

Group of 4 Buildings to Unify Campus Life.

Princeton, N. J., June 1.—Princeton university today announced plans for a new group of four buildings intended to create a center for undergraduate life. The scheme is expected to bring together all parts of student life and focus them in one social intellectual nucleus.

The buildings will form a quadrangle. They will include:

A university club which will provide a social center for all members of the university.

A building of offices for the athletic association now housed in an office building off the campus and rooms for the varsity club now without quarters.

A building to house all of the undergraduate activities at present scattered over the campus in inadequate quarters and dormitory rooms.

A theater building where productions of the Triangle club and the Theater Intime will be staged as well as productions by visiting companies.

Coordinates Several Plans.

The conception of this quadrangle represents a coordination of a number of isolated plans which have been afoot since the war. The university had been considering the erection of a club, the Triangle Tiger and other undergraduate publications were planning separate buildings and the varsity club talked of a clubhouse.

The trustees brought these various projects into one common enterprise in order to foster the principle of a unified and democratic campus life which has been a Princeton tradition.

To Be Self-Supporting.

The new quadrangle is expected to draw Princeton men together and give them the fellowship which was once obtained on the campus when the student body was smaller and could gather in the Nassau Inn grill, John's Topple's, and other old rendezvous which are no more.

It is estimated that the whole group will cost $300,000. About a quarter of this is now available from funds which were to be used for a number of isolated buildings included in the group. The remainder is to be raised as a part of the Princeton fund. The trustees' committee on undergraduate life is planning the operation of the quadrangle so as to make it self-maintaining.

H. S. BOYS STILL BARRED; GO BACK
FOR COURT CLUB

Citations asking that the principal and members of the school board of Oak Park High school be punished for contempt of court were prepared last night by Attorney Frank E. Cantwell, representing 53 suspended students, and will be presented to Superior Judge William J. Lindsay this morning.

Faint clothes policemen barred the way from their classes yesterday morning, when they sought to resume their studies after obtaining Judge Lindsay's order of reinstatement. They were suspended some weeks ago, when they admitted membership in secret fraternities.

Supt. Marion R. McDaniel declared that the board had decided to pay no attention to Judge Lindsay's order pending a decision on an appeal to the Appellate court.

LEITER RISKED
DEATH IN MINE,
WITNESS SAYS

Joseph Leiter worked in the Zeigler mines at the peril of his life following an explosion in April, 1925, when 65 miners lost their lives, according to the testimony yesterday of Charles C. Whittier, mining engineer who was in charge of the Zeigler mines at that time. Whittier was placed on the stand before Superior Judge Denis E. Sullivan who is hearing the suit of Lady Margaret Hyde, countess of Suffolk, to remove Leiter as trustee of their estate.

After the explosion, Leiter went into the pit and remained a week, working to prevent a cave-in, giving aid to the injured and helping to dig out the dead, the witness said.

The evidence was offered in refutation of Lady Suffolk's charges that her brother was lax in his management of the mining property.

TAILOR DIES BY POISON.

Henry J. Rosenberger, 45 years old, a tailor at 518 North State street, ended his life last night by swallowing poison.

Homely, Aged Faces Easily Beautified

The plainest faces made beautiful and the complexions of good-looking women improved, oldish faces made young and pretty, blemished and weather-soiled faces made spotless, white and satiny—by a very simple and harmless process that acts almost like a miracle! This is all there is to it. Mercolized Wax, procurable at any drug store (one ounce will do), is applied at night like cold cream, and washed off in the morning. This gradually peels off the lifeless particles of surface skin, permitting the underlying skin to show itself. The newer, fresher skin, when wholly in evidence, forms a complexion which for beauty and youthfulness is incomparable with one produced by other means. A comparison so natural, so free from artificiality, no one guesses the secret of its achievement. You'll not regret trying this treatment.

JAILS FIVE FOR COURT PHOTOS OF WHITEMORE

Judge Scores Ethics of Newspaper Men.

Baltimore, Md., June 1.—(AP)—Labeled as the products of a "journalistic system," which conceives its duty to its employer and its readers as public as above the law, five newspaper men were sentenced to a day in jail by Criminal Court Judge Eugene O'Dunne today.

Harold E. Elliston, managing editor of the Baltimore News, in addition to the jail sentence, was fined $5,000. All were cited for contempt of court in the publication of courtroom photographs of the Richard Reese Whittemore murder trial on May 19.

Grants an Appeal.

Besides Elliston, those involved were Harry Clark, city editor of the News; Earl C. Deland, managing editor of the Baltimore American; and William Klemm and William Sturm, photographers employed by the News and American.

Judge O'Dunne, although stating that in his opinion his judgment was not appealable, granted permission for an appeal to the Maryland appellate court to determine the point and release the defendants on their own recognizance.

"The theory of my sentence is," Judge O'Dunne said, "that all of these defendants are but the product of a journalistic system which looks upon its conception of duty to its employer and its readers as above the law. The person in this jurisdiction to whom the trial of personal responsibility leads is Mr. Harold Elliston, managing editor of the Baltimore News, one of the Hearst newspapers in this community. They are but the product of a system."

Thinks Firm May Pay.

"As the dignified affairs of the legal forum were shifted to the commerce of the street for the benefit of the Hearst International News Reel corporation, it may not be too much to expect that the defendant of which he is but a local operator, will pay the fine."

The News published pictures taken in the courtroom the opening day of the trial. The American published the same pictures the following morning. Judge O'Dunne, shortly after the opening of court, had forbidden, in a formal order from the bench, the taking of photographs.

BOY DROWNS IN STONE QUARRY.

Lansport, Ind., June 1.—(Special)—Ernest Bunkenshaft, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Bunkenshaft, was drowned in an abandoned stone quarry near Delphi, late today. Companions, who were in bathing with him, recovered the body within a short time, but efforts to revive the lad failed.

COMMONS' VOTE BACKS BALDWIN ON COAL STRIKE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, June 1.—Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin assured the house of commons tonight during the debate on the coal strike that he would take the most prompt steps to bring the parties together as soon as there was the faintest indication that they had reached the "negotiating temper" again. Parliament approved the government's policy by a vote of 252 to 108.

Vague hints of more aid for the mines were thrown out by the prime minister when he declared he was not willing to pledge the taxpayers' money indefinitely. "Though it is obvious that whatever settlement is reached, it will probably be necessary to render assistance to the industry, but I cannot say until the moment arrives exactly what form that assistance will take, nor can I indicate the amount."

The prime minister emphasized that he is not going to be forced by the strike to take political control of the mines of the country.

Samuel MacDonald declared that Prime Minister Baldwin is allowing chance after chance to slip by, while David Lloyd George pressed the government to take the situation in hand immediately along the lines of the coal commissioner's report.

KID WEIL'S WIFE WINS JURY TRIAL IN WALLOP CASE

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Mrs. Anna Weil, wife of Joseph H. (Yellow Kid) Weil, who now faces a 32 year prison term for selling stamps stolen in the Roadout mail robbery, was granted a jury trial yesterday on charges of disorderly conduct preferred by Rose Leonard, alias Lady Bledsoe, the Kid's alleged affinity.

Charles D. Beam of 4126 Sheridan road, Mrs. Weil's brother, also was granted a jury trial. They were arrested Saturday following a beating administered to Miss Bledsoe in front of the county jail as the lady was emerging from a visit to the Kid in his cell.

"In spite of Mrs. Weil's jealousy, the Kid and I are only platonic friends," asserted Miss Bledsoe, smiling superiorly upon the suspicious wife. "I went to see Mr. Weil solely on business."

Wearing a gray suit and immense white fox fur, Miss Bledsoe looked fully as dashing as the jaunty Mrs. Weil herself, as they both smiled up at Judge Francis Borelli.

PARENTS OF TWO CHICAGOANS WED 70 YEARS AGO

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Belgium's first 70th wedding anniversary will be celebrated Aug. 24 by the father and mother of two of Chicago's citizens.

Charles Verest, 1346 Halpin avenue, and Alphonse Verest, 2542 North Cicero avenue, will sail with their families in August to be present at the reception which the king and queen have promised to attend.

In the little village of Buerghout, Francois Verest, 55 years old and his wife, 53, still live in the shoemaker's hut in which they were married in 1856. They have eight sons, one daughter and forty-two grandchildren, all living.

ST. PAUL LEASE OF TERRE HAUTE LINE DEFENDED

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

Frank O. Wetmore, chairman of the board of directors of the First National bank, spent yesterday on the witness stand before Interstate Commerce Commissioner Frederick I. Cox explaining the negotiations that resulted in the lease of the Chicago, Terre Haute and Southeastern railroad in 1920 by the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul road.

While it has been hinted that the acquisition of this coal bearing branch with its obligations of $12,500,000 was an important factor in the subsequent collapse of the St. Paul financial structure, Mr. Wetmore emphatically stated that the investment was proper and profitable and that the price paid was within the valuation of the interstate commerce commission. H. E. Byram, former president, who conducted the negotiations with Mr. Wetmore, was an interested spectator.

Deal Shown Advantageous.

From the point of view of the bankers and bondholders, at least, it was shown that the deal was an advantageous one. They had struggled with the road ever since the John R. Walsh crash had thrown it into the hands of the Chicago clearing house committee that took over the Walsh assets and guaranteed his depositors.

In the whole Walsh deal the banks lost about $4,000,000, Mr. Wetmore said.

They sold the Bedford Stone company for $10,000,000 and the Alliance Coal company for $1,400,000.

The Terre Haute line was run by the committee and was offered, the witness said, to other roads years before the St. Paul took it, but the New York Central, the Grand Trunk and the Burlington refused to look at it then.

Later, when it had been built up, the Burlington and New York Central presidents began to make inquiries, but it was too late.

Fisher Questions Wetmore.

Attorney Walter L. Fisher, examining for the commission, sought in a long series of questions, going into minute steps of the negotiations, to learn whether any one connected with the St. Paul management had knowledge of the impending deal and had bought Terre Haute bonds.

Mr. Wetmore said that Mr. Byram first approached the late James B. Farquhar and then came to him. He conferred only with B. A. Eckhart, he said. He did not tell other bankers, he said, until the deal was completed.

"I think there was one outside leak," said Mr. Fisher, and called attention to a letter taken from Mr. Wetmore's files in which he had mentioned a broker named Steers as having sold $200,000 of these bonds about this time.

The lease of the Terre Haute was made, it was shown by correspondence, because Mr. Byram and his associates thought that it would be more advantageous than an outright purchase. They would not have to keep separate books and could run it as one system, it was pointed out.

BIG BILL'S SONG LURE FOR VOTES IS TOLD IN SUIT

Fresh from a victory in the Appellate court over former Mayor William Hale Thompson in his fight to collect for huge printing bills contracted by the Thompson Republican club in political campaigns, Milton G. Severinghaus, president of the Severinghaus Printing company, testified before Superior Judge Joseph B. David yesterday in his suit against William H. Reid, former smoke inspector and commissioner of public works.

The case is being watched with interest by those who have followed Severinghaus in his efforts to collect printing bills, because it is the first hearing since the Appellate court last week reversed the Superior court and ordered a new trial of the suit against ex-Mayor Thompson.

Seeks to Collect $225,000.

Severinghaus seeks to collect $225,000 from Reid, a leading member of the Thompson organization, for pledge cards, posters, handbills and other literature printed during campaigns from 1918 to 1924. He also has brought suit separately against other members of the Thompson club.

Psychology was much used by Thompson and his associates in political campaigns, Severinghaus testified. He told of his first conversation in 1918 with "Big Bill."

"I am known as a singer," the witness confessed. "And Thompson wanted to know how he could get voters to sing at political rallies. Once get the citizens singing and they get enthusiastic, forget their troubles, and have a warm feeling for the candidates they are listening to, we agreed."

So They Got 'Em to Sing.

"So I had big signs printed with the words of songs on them and we were successful in getting the voters to sing."

Severinghaus also told of "burying the dog" meetings. The phrase meant making a contribution to the campaign funds, he explained, in answer to Judge David's question. Although the meetings were often for the purpose of meeting his own printing bills, he also was accustomed to contributing, he said.

FALLS DEAD IN BATHROOM.

William Coak, 56 years old, 1908 South 51st avenue, Chgo., died suddenly, supposedly from heart disease, while in the bathroom at his home last evening.

"ARMS AT HOME" LAW HAS FIRST LOCAL RULING

In the first case tried in the local courts under the new state law that permits a citizen to keep a revolver in his home or place of business, City Judge Howard W. Hayes yesterday vacated a $200 fine placed on Lawrence Mangano.

Mangano was arrested by Chief of Detectives William Schoemaker on the night of March 25 in the Mah Jong cafe, which Mangano ran at 2353 West Madison street, during the raids on haunts of alleged gangsters.

He was taken for questioning in regard to the killing, March 14, of Dr. David Torpea, reputed to be his friend, who was slain at Taylor and Halsted streets. Torpea was declared by the police to have been a collector of the defense fund for John Scallisi and Albert Anselmi, Genoa gangsters, tried twice on charges of killing policemen. A charge of carrying concealed weapons later was brought against Mangano and he was fined.

Judge Hayes had before him yesterday a motion to vacate the fine, and did so. He said later it was the first case, so far as he knew, to arise under the new law.

A Startling Newspaper Policy

Every newspaper in the country seeks a constantly growing army of readers. And The Chicago Evening Post—one of Chicago's best daily papers—is no exception.

In the past we have found that the best way to cement the bond of friendship between our paper and its readers and their friends is to offer a premium of lasting and increasing value.

Our experience has shown that nothing of greater worth can be offered than well-selected real estate, priced at a rock-bottom figure. Property having attractive value-enhancing possibilities. Property on which the man of average means can build a little summer cottage at small expense. A place where he can give his family all the advantages formerly enjoyed by only the rich.

This unusual policy is not only building our newspaper circulation tremendously, but it is continually making us lifelong friends and subscribers.

An Outstanding Development

Four years ago our subscription premium offer was Lake Michigan Beach, near Benton Harbor, Mich. The success was instantaneous. Thousands of lots were sold, and many hundreds of cottages have since been erected. Property values have increased beyond our wildest expectations.

Friends of people who bought there came to us requesting us to give them an opportunity to get summer homes so far below the price they would have to pay elsewhere. The Post again offered to the public this chance two years ago by developing Pell Lake, Wisconsin. Its success was marvelous.

Again a demand was made that we give another chance to those who could not take advantage of the previous opportunities. This offer, made by The Post, is Lake Como Beach, in the vicinity of Lake Geneva, and will give to many the possibility of securing their desire, by erecting their summer homes at a minimum cost.

The Chicago Evening Post resort, Lake Como Beach, is one of the most desirable summer homesite spots on Lake Como, set in health-giving, happy surroundings.

We are not in the real estate business. The offering is made purely as a circulation proposition, to enable the paper to add a host of new subscribers to its list of readers.

Behind this offer stands the many years' prestige and reputation of The Chicago Evening Post, assuring absolute responsibility for every statement made.

Check These Important Points

Nowhere in Wisconsin is there a more delightful spot for a summer cottage than at Lake Como Beach. Only 71 miles from Chicago on the Chicago and North Western Railroad. High and dry. Served by the facilities at Lake Geneva, about two miles away on State Highway 12.

Busses available from the Railroad Station to the property. Excellent train service every day. Frontage DIRECTLY on the lake. Unsurpassed boating, fishing and bathing. All lots facing on streets ready for the building of cottages.

FIRST COME, FIRST SERVED—GRASP THIS OPPORTUNITY BEFORE IT PASSES

Keep in mind this important fact—You are doing business with a highly reputable and established family newspaper, The Chicago Evening Post, whose vast resources are behind every purchase made—in itself a guaranty of impressive quality.

This Is What You Get

For $76 each, payable $10 down and $3.00 a month, you get building lots at Lake Como Beach. No interest on the unpaid balance. No property assessments. You actually get these wonderful lots at a fraction of their real value.

You get a clear deed upon completion of payments. Equal rights to the beach. Free life membership in a furnished club.

PART TWO SPORTS MARKETS

CUBS HIT 4 HOMERS TO BEAT CARDS, 10-9

750,000 TO SEE 147TH ENGLISH DERBY TODAY $10,000,000 Bet on Colorado, Favorite.

EPSON, England, June 1.—(U. N.)—Thousands camped out on the rolling Epson Downs tonight, to be on hand for the running of the Derby stakes tomorrow afternoon.

Race lovers from all parts of the United Kingdom, sportsmen from the continent and tourists from near and far are converging upon the historic course over which eight-year-old colts and fillies will compete for the world's greatest racing prize.

Covered wagons of gaily bedecked bookmakers' tents, and brightly colored awnings are strung over the Downs, while in advantageous locations costers deep beneath their awnings ply their wares from the London markets.

$10,000,000 Bet on Colorado. Generally fair weather is predicted, and 100,000 vehicles are expected. Probably 750,000 persons will see the Derby.

Although the coal strike has curtailed rail service in England, this will scarcely affect Derby traffic, for hundreds of passenger coaches have been concentrated in London terminals and will be run back and forth to Epson as rapidly as they are filled with racegoers.

Bookmakers declare that more than $10,000,000 already has been wagered upon Lord Derby's Colorado, the short-priced favorite. Bets have come in from all parts of the world.

Hundreds will be enriched suddenly through the many sweepstakes to be decided by the Derby. First prize in the great Calcutta sweepstakes will mean $200,000 to the holder of the lucky ticket.

Lady Astor Picked Lex. Newspapers have offered prizes ranging from $1,000 to $25,000 for readers who can name the first three horses to finish Wednesday afternoon. Five prizes, each of $25,000, will be given to 1,500 readers of a London weekly correctly placed the first three Derby horses.

Gay Lethario was scratched today, leaving eighteen probable starters. Lady Astor was asked to tip the winner. Instead of naming her husband's entry, she picked Sir Abe Bailey's Lex.

What George Bernard Shaw was asked for a tip, he replied: "What is this Derby? If it is so important as all this, my opinion is worth money."

18 HORSES ENTERED. EPSON, England, June 1.—(U. N.)—The 146th renewal of the Derby stakes, England's greatest racing classic, which will be run tomorrow at Epson Downs will bring eighteen horses to the starting line. The race is over a course of 1 1/4 miles and the total money value of the stakes is about $125,000, including the actual stakes of 2500 sovereigns and money paid in forfeits by owners.

Lord Derby's Colorado, which won the 2,000 guineas stake, was installed as favorite at 2 to 1 in this evening's betting. Next comes Lord Woolavington's Cornish at 7 to 1, while Lord Astor, whose colors have been second in times in eight Derbies, pins his faith on Swift and Sure, quoted at 10 to 1.

Sir Abe Bailey's Lex is supported at 10 to 1. J. P. Hornung's Apple Sammy is at 100 to 1, Aga Khan's Cimex, 25 to 1, and Sir George Bulough's Harpagon, 25 to 1.

MARTIN DELANEY, DEVELOPER OF ATHLETES, DIES

Drops Dead on Way to Work.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL. Martin A. Delaney, for more than thirty years one of the country's leading physical directors, died yesterday morning at East 67th street and 6th avenue.

Delaney was walking from his home at 6940 Paxton avenue to the offices of the Midway A. C. 1501 East 62d street, when he fell on the street car tracks. He was carried to a nearby drug store where efforts to revive him failed.

While the death of this noted athletic leader was generally unexpected, it did not come as a complete surprise to his intimate friends. Delaney had been afflicted with stomach trouble brought about by an accident several years ago when a bus in which he was riding with one of his teams overturned.

Practiced What He Preached. Although he realized he was not well, he tried to make others believe he was the personification of physical fitness and in this he was successful. He lived up to his teachings and seldom asked any one to do what he could not do himself.

For nearly twenty-five years Delaney engaged in rather strenuous exercise every day. In the last five years he deserted the gymnasium and his exercise consisted only of long walks.

Although Delaney was known to the sports world for twelve straight years, he was not until 1917 that his fame as a physical director and developer of athletes was pronounced. In that year Everett C. Brown, who was then president of the Chicago Athletic association, persuaded Delaney to give up his position at the Kansas City A. C. to become physical director of the Cherry Circle club.

Won Many Titles. As coach of C. A. A. teams, his squads won the Central A. A. U. outdoor track and field championships for ten consecutive years and the central indoor title for twelve straight years. In March, 1917, he took a little band of athletes to New York and won the National A. A. U. indoor championship and repeated by winning the outdoor title in St. Louis.

In 1920, Cherry Circle teams won the National A. A. U. junior and senior track and field championships at the Great Lakes Naval Training station. In 1920, Delaney took his team to Boston and won the National A. A. U. outdoor track and field championships which were the final triumphs for the American Olympic team of that year. Delaney managed to qualify fourteen of his athletes.

Quits C. A. A. Job. In October of 1920 Delaney was made general manager of the C. A. A. during the administration of President Richard J. Collins.

The duties of a manager proved too much and Delaney tendered his resignation, which was accepted on April 1, 1925. Shortly afterward he was signed as general manager of the Midway A. C.

Charles Rides Two Winners on Long Odds at Aurora

BY FRENCH LANE. [Chicago Tribune Press Service.] Aurora, Ill., June 1.—(Special.)—Chicago racing silks and W. Charles, a New Orleans jockey, were in the spotlight here this afternoon when Delphi and Slander, both at tall odds, scored exciting victories.

The two winners were running in the interests of the Midway A. C. 1501 East 62d street and 6th avenue. Delaney was walking from his home at 6940 Paxton avenue to the offices of the Midway A. C. 1501 East 62d street, when he fell on the street car tracks.

Fast Mail Wins Handicap. The card today was devoid of a feature except for a claiming handicap, which came fifth on the program, and was probably just as well for a wind so strong it made racing conditions uncertain swept over Exposition park.

Bob Gilmore, famous a few years ago as the trainer of In Memoriam, saddled Fast Mail, the winner of the claiming handicap. And the four-year-old son of Peter Quince—Plausible, running in J. Shriners' colors, was much the best, getting the verdict by nearly two lengths after cutting out the pace most of the way.

There was considerable betting action around Miss Rosedale, but whatever chance she had was lost on the first turn when Jockey O'Brien took her extremely wide. She improved her position in the teeth of the powerful wind on the back stretch, but lost the place money to Arragosa in the final furlong. Fast Mail was the favorite.

Crowell Suspended 10 Days. Some rough riding in the second race, won by Delphi, brought a spill when the favorite, Liberty, stumbled soon after the start. It tossed Jockey Yelton over the fence into the infield, but he was not injured. Jockey W. Crowell, on Hawkeye, was held responsible for the accident and drew a 10-day suspension for the offense.

A Cudgel filly, called Colleen O., captured the two-year-old race, Jockey Judy bringing up in midstretch to win going away. Queen of Sheba was second and Lady Lura third.

What appeared to be a good sized getting out came on Polly Atwell's filly in the sixth. She came from behind to win and the odds against her were battered down from an opening price of 15 to 1 to less than 2 to 1 at post time.

PAIRINGS MADE FOR WALKER CUP MATCHES TODAY

U. S. Golfers Go Through Final Practice.

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland, June 1.—(U. N.)—America's invading linksmen, before whose thrills the British amateur title already has fallen, tomorrow will draw their clubs in defense of the Walker cup, famous trophy emblematic of international team supremacy.

The struggle of the British and American teams over the historic St. Andrews course brings leading amateur players of the two countries together for the fourth time.

In each of their three previous encounters, America has been victorious, winning the first in 1922 at Southampton, N. Y., 8 matches to 4; defending the trophy here a year later, 6 1/2 to 5 1/2, and repeating at Garden City, N. Y., two years ago, 9 to 3. No contest was played last year.

All Hotels Crowded. St. Andrews, while used to staging golfing events of world importance, seems more than usually awake to the notable character of the impending struggle. Hotels near the course, many of them flying the stars and stripes, were filled to overflowing with visitors.

The pairings for the matches were officially announced by the Royal and Ancient Golf club this afternoon. Tomorrow's two ball foursomes will be as follows: Francis Ouimet and Jesse Sweetser and George Von Elm vs. Harris and Hezlet; Gilbert vs. Harris, Gunn vs. Brownlow, Mackenzie vs. Storey, and Gardner vs. Jamieson.

Paired as they will play tomorrow, the American players went through a practice round at St. Andrews this morning. The British team, composed of Francis Ouimet and Jesse Sweetser, while Sweetser and Von Elm played Capt. Robert A. Gardner and Roland Mackenzie. Both matches finished all square.

Thursday's singles in order of play will be: Jones vs. Touley, Sweetser vs. Holderness, Ouimet vs. Wethered, Von Elm vs. Hezlet, Gilbert vs. Harris, Gunn vs. Brownlow, Mackenzie vs. Storey, and Gardner vs. Jamieson.

Paired as they will play tomorrow, the American players went through a practice round at St. Andrews this morning. The British team, composed of Francis Ouimet and Jesse Sweetser, while Sweetser and Von Elm played Capt. Robert A. Gardner and Roland Mackenzie. Both matches finished all square.

Expectations of American victory in the Walker cup is based on the belief that the composite strength of the selected eight best Yankee amateurs is greater than that of the selected eight British amateurs. Americans have won before. In the recent tourney, however, British flashed several previously "unknowns," just as youngsters have been arising in this country.

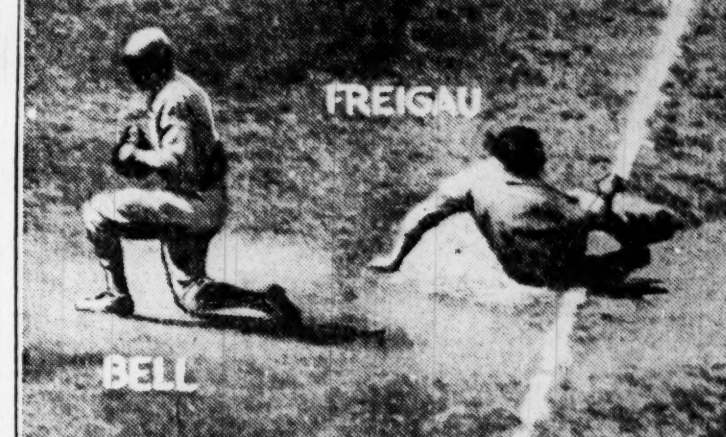

So the Americans anticipate American success, but with the major task of capturing the British title accomplished, we'd not begrudge the home players the Walker cup. Perhaps such a result would be better from a sporting viewpoint.

U. S. RIFLEMEN BEAT BRITONS. [Chicago Tribune Press Service.] LONDON, June 1.—The Sir Howard Vincent shield was returned to the 107th regiment, United States Infantry, formerly the 7th regiment of the New York National Guard, when they defeated the Queens and Westminster, the crack British regiment of which the donor of the shield once was the colonel. The shoot, which was held at Biele, was won by 91 points in the 900 and 1,000 yard target shoot.

SETTING STAGE FOR VICTORY

A bit of fast base running by Howard Freigau in the seventh inning helped the Cubs to a 10 to 9 triumph over the Cards yesterday. Freigau was on second with one out when Shannon hit to shortstop. Thevenow threw to Lester Bell, but Freigau slid into third ahead of the throw and scored the winning run a moment later.

Our Tony Kaufmann was sent to the rubber to start. Apparently Boss McCarthy didn't think about the game blow-out. The other big blow for the Cubs was struck by Mandy Brooks, and it was Jim Bottomley who pulled one for St. Louis, turning the trick in the first round with one out only.

BY JAMES CRUSINBERRY. One of those brisk winds that seemed to come direct from the plains of Kansas blew the ball out of the north for a pitcher who is nervous about his reputation. Care free men without nerves were needed there. Our Tony Kaufmann was sent to the rubber to start. Apparently Boss McCarthy didn't think about the game blow-out. The other big blow for the Cubs was struck by Mandy Brooks, and it was Jim Bottomley who pulled one for St. Louis, turning the trick in the first round with one out only.

It was a double of home runs, which naturally leads one to think it was a big day for a couple of well known four base knockers, Mr. Rogers Hornsby and Mr. Hack Wilson. But neither of these big hits was the bases filled. The other big blow for the Cubs was struck by Mandy Brooks, and it was Jim Bottomley who pulled one for St. Louis, turning the trick in the first round with one out only.

MULLEN LEASES WHITE SOX PARK FOR RING BOUTS

Bantam Match Awaits
O. K. of Comish.

The White Sox baseball park, as well as the Cubs, will be the scene of several boxing bouts this summer and fall, according to a statement issued by promoter Jim Mullen, who signed a lease for the use of the south side park, while the American league team is out of the city. Mullen recently secured a lease on the park, and he plans to stage shows in both parks. He already has two championship matches signed. He will put on the bantamweight bout between Charlie Phil Rosenberg, the titleholder, and Bud Taylor, who is the boxing commission, is ready to function. Mullen also has Rocky Kansas, the light weight champion, signed to meet Samy Mandell for the world's 135 pound title. In addition, he plans to bring Mickey Walker and Pete LaFino together for the welterweight title.

Taylor Starts Training.
Mullen has contracted with a center for the bantam to be used in both parks, and will announce other plans as soon as the boxing commission is ready to grant permits. Taylor came into Chicago yesterday and started preliminary training at Mullen's. Bud boxed two rounds with Marty Shields and two with Don Davis. The Terre Haute fighter has completely recovered from a recent attack of boils.

Comish Resumes Work.
The boxing commission resumed its sessions yesterday after a three-day rest. According to Chairman O. W. Huncke, progress is being made in the drafting of the rules, but there is no intention as to when the first show will be sanctioned. The commission will meet every day this week.

Boxing Notes

JIMMY FINLEY of Louisville, Ky., who was credited with a victory over Philip Mitchell of Milwaukee in Cedar Rapids, Ia., Monday night, returned to Chicago yesterday. Finley resumed training at Mullen's for his ten round bout with Johnny Nichols of St. Paul at Indianapolis on Friday. Finley and Manager Eddie Stanton leave for the battleground to-morrow.

Tom Andrews, Milwaukee promoter, has leased the Cream city ball park for the summer and is drafting for a Bud Taylor-Joe Sanjour match for the windup of his opening show. Eddie Long, manager of Taylor, intends to hold off for a few days in the hope that the date of the Taylor-Rosenberg match will be announced.

Pinkie Mitchell, who met Finley in Cedar Rapids, Ia., Monday, passed through Chicago on his way to Milwaukee. According to Billy Mitchell, who acted as his brother's manager, it was a close fight and opinion was divided over the result.

Notes of the Cubs

THE final game of the series of five against the Cardinals will be played today. The game will be the final for the Cubs on the home lot for nearly four weeks, the schedule commanding them to make one of the toughest tours in years. Every city in the league will be visited before they return.

Jim Bottomley nearly made a second homer in the sixth. His long fly to right center hit the screen in front of the bleachers and the blow was held to a triple.

Some of the fans started booing Young Shanton when he made a second error in the fifth, but there were just as many who gave him applause, and the young lad doffed his cap to both factions.

The Cubs had a dozen hits for a total of 26 bases, which are some bases. There were six singles, two doubles and four homers.

After the game the Grover Alexander motored to their home in their new and elaborate automobile.

A close decision at third helped the Cubs to produce the winning run in the seventh. Freigan was on second, with one out, when Shanton smashed to Thevenoz, who chucked the ball to Bell as Freigan slid into the bag. The ump said the man was safe, and he came home on Hartnett's sacrifice fly.

Some of the fans started booing Young Shanton when he made a second error in the fifth, but there were just as many who gave him applause, and the young lad doffed his cap to both factions.

After the game the Grover Alexander motored to their home in their new and elaborate automobile.

PAIRINGS FOR NATIONAL OPEN ARE ANNOUNCED

Evans Must Qualify on Calumet Course.

BY MORROW KRUM.

On the bulletin board of the Calumet Country club, where the qualifying rounds for the national open tournament will be held June 14, are three cards. They are owned by Alex. Aytoun, competitive course, Evanston Golf club; Eddie Murphy, Ridge Country club; and Ed Gayer, three professionals.

Each of that trio of golfers has hung up a 63 for the round. Gayer's card read 34-68-88, and Aytoun had a 63-68-88. The record is 63 and it is held by the three pros.

Fifty Players Tour Course.
More than fifty of the boys who hope to qualify for the national open played Calumet yesterday. There was a terrible wind and there were no particularly low scores. James Carberry, James Meehan, Gunnar Nelson, and Murphy, all of whom had scores of 70 a week ago, were around the 74 mark yesterday.

Appended are the pairings for the national open qualifying round. If you have entered look up your starting time. If you want to join the gallery and watch good golfers, pick your trio—the tests will be played in threesomes this year instead of in twosomes as last year.

Wisconsin Trout Fishing Within Hard Day's Drive

BY BOB BECKER.

Evanston, Ill. — (To the Editor.) — Please let me know of the nearest good trout stream or streams in Wisconsin. I have in mind something that could be reached in eight hours of auto driving. Do you know of a good book on trout streams in Wisconsin, one that has a map showing streams that have trout in them? JAMES W. BIXBY.

Answer: I know of no real good trout streams that can be reached. But if you have a car that can step along you can drive to Shawano and the Menominee Indian reservation in a day and get some good fishing in that territory.

Better yet, continue on highway 55 northward (it's a dandy road) and enter Langlade county. Just before you get to Markton you'll look down upon a beautiful section of the Wolf river that ought to produce some dandy brook and rainbows for you. The state of Wisconsin has published a little booklet on its streams and lakes which have game fish. Send to the conservation department at Madison for a copy.

YANK BALLOONIST FEARED LOST IS SAFE IN HOLLAND

BRUSSELS, June 1. — (AP) — The Stars and Stripes were flying over the Belgian Aero club today to indicate American's victory in the international balloon race for the second Gordon Bennett trophy.

The race was won by the Goodyear III, manned by Wade T. Van Orman and Walter M. Morgan, which covered 523 miles, landing at Solvay, Belgium, last night.

Second place was taken by the United States army balloon, S-16, while the third American entry, the Akroa NNA, was disqualified when she struck the ground, tumbling out her assistant pilot, H. W. Maxson. Anxiety for the pilot, John A. Boettner, was allayed when news came this morning that the Akroa had landed safely in Holland last night.

They say
I'm
"fussy"

WELL, let that go. I'm ready to admit that so far as pipe tobacco is concerned, I've got ideas. And if insisting on a tobacco that won't bite the tongue or parch the throat is "being fussy," you can write "guilty" alongside my name, and I won't even appeal the charge.

I can't speak for anybody else, but personally I smoke for pleasure! So I smoke Prince Albert. I'll say I do. Right after breakfast, on up until I switch off the light for the night. Pipe-load after pipe-load. Day after day. Prince Albert treats my tongue as gently as a mother handles a brand-new baby.

They tell me it's the Prince Albert process that cuts out bite and parch. Fair enough. I'll testify before the well-known world that P. A. is the coolest, sweetest, most genuinely friendly smoke a fellow can get on this planet. You suspect that the minute you throw back the hinged lid on the tidy red tin and get a whiff of real tobacco.

Now, I'm telling you to be fussy about your smoking. Many a pipe-smoker has fooled himself when he should have been soothing himself with P. A. I say it pays to be fussy about anything that means so much to a man. What do you think?

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, round and half-round tin humidifiers, and round crystal glass humidifiers with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

NEW YORKER $850,000 CHICAGO F

BY AL CHAS

Samuel Heller Jacobs, New Yorker, who recently bought the hotel in Gotham, plans to tear it down and replace it with a new building, the New Yorker, a 20-story building, estimated at $850,000. Mr. Jacobs bought the hotel a year ago at $200,000. The hotel was built by George H. Dubois, Esq., and others, in 1893. It was then known as the New Yorker Hotel.

The seven apartments at 24125, at the northwest corner of the intersection of the waukeo and Warner streets, sold by the Warner Building Co. to George L. Jacobs, Esq., for $100,000. The building was designed by John T. Walker from the design of the Catholic Church.

Atchison Invests After 7 Per Cent
New York, June 1. — (AP) — The Atchison Investment Co. has announced that it has received $1,000,000 from the sale of its stock. The company was organized in 1914 and has since that time been engaged in the investment of funds in various enterprises.

IN FOREIGN SECURITIES
LONDON, June 1. — (AP) — The London Stock Exchange has closed today with a slight advance. The market was generally quiet, with only a few transactions in foreign securities. The closing prices were as follows: ...

NEW YORKER PAYS $850,000 FOR CHICAGO FLATS

BY AL CHASE.

Samuel Kellor Jacobs, New York millionaire, who recently bought the Netley estate in England, which he proposes to wreck and replace with skyscrapers, yesterday entered into the Chicago real estate field by paying $850,000 for two big south side flat buildings. W. K. Young & Brother, Inc., of Chicago, who are the owners of the buildings, were responsible for his entry into this market and were his brokers.

Mr. Jacobs bought the two forty-two apartment buildings, completed about a year ago at 52nd St. and Woodlawn ave. by George H. Dubin, Abraham J. Dubin, and others, from plans by Dubin & Eisenberg, on a site 206x271.

Gives Farms in Payment.

The New Yorker gave ten farms in Indiana and one in Michigan as part payment, at $250,000, against the purchase of $850,000 and paid $150,000 cash. Title was taken to the two apartment buildings by the Canterbury Building Corporation and the Randall Building Corporation both of which are controlled by Mr. Jacobs. A. B. Jacobson was broker for the sellers, Ringer, Wilhartz & Hirsch, and Hyman Schorff were attorneys.

Milwaukee Avenue Deal.

The seven apartments and two stores, 1815 E. at the northwest corner of Milwaukee and Warner avenues, have been sold by the Warner Building Corporation, to George F. Rubin for a reported $32,000. Loeb & Hammet and James Thibet were brokers.

Theodore B. Prescott of G. H. Schneider & Co., was the broker in the sale of the sixteen flats at 1028 Oak Park avenue, reported recently as purchased by John T. Walker from Carl A. Guntz, for $100,000.

McMahon & Hoban were brokers in the recent purchase of seven acres at Mundelein by the Catholic Bishop of Chicago.

Atchison Invests Earnings

After 7 Per Cent Dividend

New York, June 1.—(AP)—The Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe will continue to meet for 12.50 per cent to $100,000,000 a year for additions and betterments to handle the increase in the road's business. President W. B. Storey said today.

"As far as we can see now we shall need all our surplus after dividends for some years to come," he continued.

"There are still some uncertainties in our position, although they are gradually being rolled down. A 7 per cent stock is a good stock and by putting surplus earnings into the property we are more nearly making the 7 per cent dividend a permanent one."

New York, June 1.—(AP)—Stocks turned reactionary today after an opening display of strength. Heavy selling of bank loans, which sent the all money rate from 4 to 5 per cent, the highest in more than two months, and failure of operators on the long side to attract an outside following after a week of steadily rising prices, were generally ascribed as the causes of the selling movement. Trading, however, turned dull on the decline, but the day's sales aggregating only $78,000,000.

Business news over the weekend was mixed in character. Reports of our retail trade in some sections and in high priced models by a large automobile manufacturer contrasted with several favorable earnings statements, the announcement that sales of two of the leading mail order houses were running well above those of a year ago, and reports of a continuation of heavy freight traffic.

Dividend Action Disappoints.

Declaration of only the regular dividends today on Mack Trucks and Atchafalaya probably caused some selling by disappointed holders who were looking for special distributions, although none was expected in conservative banking quarters. Atchafalaya sold down nearly 10 points to 137 1/2 on the statement of President Storey that "as far as we can see now we shall need all our surplus after dividends for some years to come." Mack Trucks also sold down 3 points to 110 1/2 and then rallied feebly. Heavy realizing sales impeded bullish operations in the oil shares. Atlantic Refining dropped 3 1/2 points to 121. Standard Oil of New Jersey preferred yielded 3 1/2 and most of the others showed mixed fractional changes. Steel shares failed to maintain their early gains, U. S. Steel common closing 3/4 not lower at 122 1/2 after having touched 124 1/2.

Baldwin Scores Advance.

Baldwin advanced more than a point on the announcement of a large order from the Atchafalaya railroad. Independent strength also was shown by Booth Fisheries, Kelsey Wheel, Manhattan Electrical Supply, Consolidated Distributors and McCrory Stores II.

Southern railroad shares received excellent support. Atlantic Coast Line and Louisville and Nashville each closed a point or so higher, while the Southern Railway showed a small fractional recession at 114, after having touched 115 1/2. Canadian Pacific preferred and New York Central fell back 1/2 point each, but Western Pacific preferred advanced a point to 124, after having touched 123 1/2.

Foreign exchange trading was quiet with a drop of 1 cent to 84 1/2 on the part of the dollar. Demand sterling was slightly easier at 148 1/2, but French and Belgian francs held relatively firm at 226 1/2 and 216 1/2, respectively.

FINANCIAL NOTES

The Pennsylvania railroad, as part of its equipment program for 1926, has placed orders at its Altoona works for 60 six wheel medium weight switching locomotives for general service and 24 seventy foot all steel dining cars of the latest type.

The Atchafalaya, Towka and Santa Fe has placed an order with Baldwin Locomotive for ten Mikado type locomotives and fifteen Santa Fe locomotives, involving about $2,000,000. In addition, Baldwin booked eight locomotives from the Louisville and Nashville.

Reorganization committee of the Emerson-Brantingham company announced that holders of between 75 and 80 per cent of both the preferred and common stocks have accepted the plan of readjustment calling for issuance of $3,000,000 five year 5 per cent debentures to fund bank debts and obligations of the larger creditors. This virtually assures adoption of the plan.

Validation of $2,000,000 worth of Texas district road bonds will not be attempted before fall. Gov. Miriam A. Ferguson has declined to call a special session of the legislature to react legislation to validate the bonds pending a survey of amended bills drafted for this purpose. Validity of the proposed issue was jeopardized by a recent decision of the United States Supreme court.

RAISE WHEAT ESTIMATES: TOTAL IS 777,000,000 BU

A winter wheat crop of 561,000,000 bu and a spring wheat yield of 216,000,000 bu was suggested by an average of the four private estimates given to the trade yesterday. Winter wheat condition averaged 79.7 against 84 in May and 68.3 last year, while spring wheat averaged 80.9, against 79.7 last year and a 30 year average of 80.9. Spring wheat acreage, 50,008,000, against 50,231,000 last year, a good part of the reduction being in the Pacific northwest. Oats acreage is estimated at 45,238,000, against 44,467,000 last year. A rice crop of 42,000,000 bu compares with 45,000,000 bu a month ago, and 49,000,000 bu harvested last year.

Condition of winter wheat improved during May in the states east of the Mississippi river, and deteriorated in Kansas and Nebraska, but the higher par yield resulted in an increase in the indicated yield. Snow estimates Kansas, Nebraska, Oklahoma, and Texas at 292,000,000 bu, against 276,000,000 bu a month ago. Spring wheat very spotted due to poorly distributed rainfall. Details follow, last six figures omitted.

HARPER LEECH.

Here are two views of modern business. Says Herbert Hoover: "The concept of business organizations of half a century ago was that management was controlled by the owners. The natural and major pressure was to get the highest possible profit to the owner by creating the widest possible spread between the cost of labor and materials on one side and the rates or price to the customer on the other that the market would permit."

But in certain very important groups the ownership has much diminished its domination over policies of management, with a consequent material shift in the relative pressures between the separate interests of owner, customer and laborer. Mutualization, diffusion of stock into multitudes of inert holders and governmental limitations of profits in certain industries have all contributed to this change.

The concerns which have developed since the setting fall into three important groups—the mutualised financial institutions, the public utilities and a group of older established manufacturing and distributing organizations.

In these three groups, due to the inertia of large numbers of holders, the managers have not been able to evolve out of their own stuff, and the leadership of these great businesses tends strongly to pass from the owners to professional managers, who have but little participation in ownership. From all of which it is clear that the ownership of these concerns is no longer so dominant a presence for profits to owners, and so the incentive to invest in them in some degree, to larger and larger amounts, is being steadily diminished with workers' and customers' share of earnings upon which the ownership can be commanded in the market.

aid Charles M. Schwab the other day: "I show my return to you from the president of the United States Steel Corporation in 1935. To date, the corporation has paid me $1,000,000 on plant and is now earning more on its investments than it did twenty-three years ago. I controlled the entire steel industry in the United States and if the management could show no better returns on capital invested than 4 per cent, as is at present the case, I would change the statement. In spending money for plant improvements and enlargements, enough money was given to what the competition would earn, and in view of the fact that the industry was steadily exhausting its unreplaceable raw materials, it was virtually giving them away in not getting a fair return on the investment."

Two utterances illustrate the two opposing forces in any capitalist system. The first is ethically superior to the other, but no one can tell which is most beneficial. Had it not been for the "profit" policy of the elder capitalism, we would not have the capital equipment which is the underpinning of our modern standards now. It is a question whether at the present time the "conservatism" of modern management—the conservation of buying power by the policy of maintaining high wages and high selling prices, is not socially necessary. The other policy might result in such frequent depressions and booms as to break the machine.

An active trade with a strong and higher market was on in provisions with lard, short ribs, and bellies taken partly by shorts and commission houses, partly attributed to the advance in the price of corn, and the best advance of late was made and well held. Closing prices were as at gains on bond of 100 lbs., short ribs 17 1/2¢; lard, and bellies 25 3/4¢.

Cash trade in lard and meats was good, and the market for the same was strong. The salted bellies were 1/4¢ higher and green, cured and salted hams advanced 1/4¢. Lard was 1/4¢ higher. The market for the month, and was 37,500,000 lbs. against 69,842,000 the last year. Prices follow:

IMPORTANT refunding operations can be expected," says a well-known financial journal, "now that the average return from high-grade bonds has fallen to about 4.60%."

"The rise in the price of representative bonds from an average of about 70 in 1920 and 1921, to above 87, means a drop in interest rates sufficient to make profitable the refinancing of many bond issues distributed at high rates during the past few years."

Many bond issues underwritten at interest rates of 6½% or more four or five years ago, can now be refinanced at rates which will show a profit to the borrower. Lawrence Stern and Company invites inquiry from responsible individuals and corporations who have such loans outstanding. We have recently underwritten real estate bonds at yields from $5\frac{1}{2}\%$ and upward, and in many cases we can arrange terms that will mean a real saving to the borrower.

This company is in the market for the most conservative class of real estate loans and other corporate issues; and we are particularly interested at this time in large real estate loans secured by centrally located, metropolitan property.

We are prepared to make analyses of outstanding loans, and to suggest plans for refunding that will reduce interest charges and strengthen the financial position of the borrower.

BUSINESS ENTERS TURN OF YEAR IN CHEERFUL MIEN

BY O. A. MATHER.

June, which is generally regarded in the field of business and finance as the turn of the year, opened yesterday with more cheerful sentiment. The general feeling was that when the boom is to be expected the volume of trade will continue to grow. Moreover, most of the dire prophecies that appeared a few weeks ago have proved to be unwarranted. The month's trading has held up well despite the unseasonable weather. An excellent example of the country's broad purchasing power, Sears, Roebuck & Co., the largest mail-order house, yesterday reported May sales totaling $1,000,000, an increase of 16.7 per cent over a year ago. While sales for the first five months of this year were $10,000,000, a gain of 6.1 per cent over last year.

Decrease in Failures.

Business is in a stronger financial position, as evidenced by data on failures gathered by R. G. Dun & Co. There were 1,730 commercial failures with $23,342,518 indebtedness last month. This compares with 1,557 defaults and $20,841,000 in liabilities in April. A total of 1,730 defaults and $23,342,518 indebtedness in May, 1925.

Reviews of general conditions continue encouraging, although not unanimous. The National City Bank of New York notes that trade and industry continued at high levels throughout May. "Normal" lines are showing as uniform improvement as of a month ago and some industries give signs of a new boom. The run ahead of competition. Taking business as a whole, the country is actively engaged and most persons are making money.

See Sag in Steel and Iron.

The Guaranty Trust company finds that a moderate decline in trade and industry activity has continued in recent weeks, with the most conspicuous instances of this tendency in the basic industrial, such as steel and iron, building, and automobiles, and certain branches of textile manufacturing. The downward movement of activity, however, is not alarming. No general depression exists and present conditions warrant the belief that none is in prospect.

The Institute of American Meat Packers reported that last month's results on pack operations were unsatisfactory. Despite a good demand for smoked and dry salt meats. During most of May, hog prices averaged more than 10 per cent higher than a year ago and almost double the price two and three years ago; when hog production and marketing were at a peak. On the other hand, the demand for beef was fair and prices steady last month, while hide values showed improvement.

Increase in Trade Output.

The petroleum industry reported a sizeable increase in production last week. The daily average gross crude oil output was 2,610,000 barrels, a gain of 23,000 barrels a day over the preceding week. Output of the Rocky Mountain fields increased 21,000 barrels, while California production gained 2,100 barrels a day. Imports of petroleum and products of California oil at Atlantic and Gulf ports showed a considerable increase over the previous week.

A DRASTIC DECISION

- After July 31, 1926, Little Blue Books cannot be sold at a standardized price of 5c each. All books of more than 64 pages (15,000 words)—the 96 and 128 page books—must be raised in price.
The 96 page books will be 6c; the 128 page books 7c. We have been carrying a heavy loss on Little Blue Books of more than 64 pages. With the raise in prices toward improvement of the list of more than 1000 Little Blue Books, this loss can no longer be sustained.
Order NOW before this price change takes effect. Here is a bargain of bargains. You may still get all the Little Blue Books at 5c each, up to 123 pages in length. After July 31, 1926, THE PRICE GOES UP! Persons living in foreign countries will be allowed an extension of time to order, but all orders must not later than midnight of July 31, 1926, orders arriving after July 31 will be filled if they are postmarked before midnight of that date.

PART THREE WOMEN'S FEATURES WANT ADS

The Law of the Talon

By Louis Tracy.

John F. Norton, the youngest son of the late John F. Norton, is greatly disturbed by a new law in England which permits a man to marry a woman who is already married, provided he is a British subject and the woman is a foreigner. Norton is a British subject and the woman in question is a foreigner. Norton is a British subject and the woman in question is a foreigner. Norton is a British subject and the woman in question is a foreigner.

With a gesture of unwillingness, almost of annoyance, Alistair produced the letter from a breast pocket. "Don't blame me," he said. "You were warned."

John took the letter, and read it through twice carefully. She was a woman, but tried not to show it, that Alistair studied her face intently while she held the letter under a lamp. When she handed it back she probably expected the man far more than she imagined by her first question.

"Did you really shoot a fox?" she inquired.

John looked at her, and then at the letter, and then at her again. "Yes," he said. "I shot a fox."

"What a lovely thing!" she said. "I have heard that you were a great hunter."

"I was," he said. "I was a great hunter."

"Did you really shoot a fox?" she inquired.

John looked at her, and then at the letter, and then at her again. "Yes," he said. "I shot a fox."

"What a lovely thing!" she said. "I have heard that you were a great hunter."

"I was," he said. "I was a great hunter."

"Did you really shoot a fox?" she inquired.

John looked at her, and then at the letter, and then at her again. "Yes," he said. "I shot a fox."

"What a lovely thing!" she said. "I have heard that you were a great hunter."

"I was," he said. "I was a great hunter."

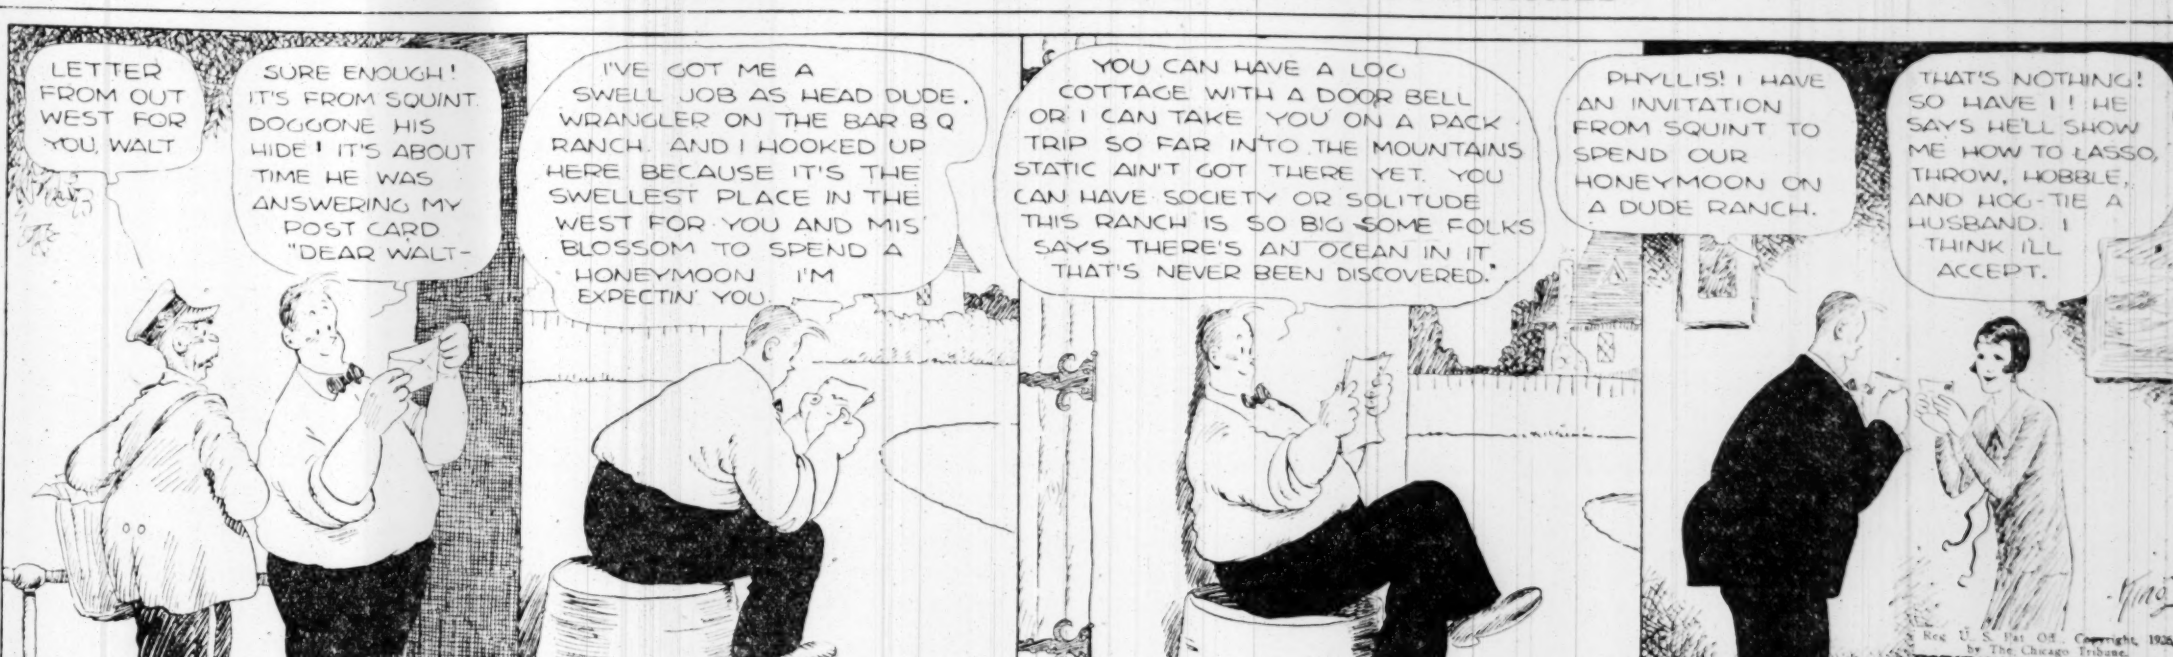

"Did you really shoot a fox?" she inquired.

John looked at her, and then at the letter, and then at her again. "Yes," he said. "I shot a fox."

"What a lovely thing!" she said. "I have heard that you were a great hunter."

"I was," he said. "I was a great hunter."
